Ms. Clemens,

Ms. Clemens,
Although last year I really didn't like you all that much I've really gotten to know & like you a lot more since taking Newspapers. It has been real exciting & extremely interesting knowing you.
Hope you have one helluva career as a teacher & don't worry, I'll be back to visit.

To Mr. Clement
My favorite teacher
This year. Thanks
for being so nice.
He's been fun.
Jim Turner

Mr. Clemens,

Well this year has been really fun and especially this class.
After 4th hour I would consider the day over because the hour never seemed like a class because ~~it was so much fun.~~
Well see you maybe in the grocery store in about 10 yrs. Thanks for a fun year.

Time is of the Essence

---

One of the most important things in life is time. It never stands still but continues to move. It goes by faster than most think it should. Time never takes away, but adds memories to life.

The years that are spent at Arthur Hill can be some of the most memorable times of our lives. High School carries some very special memories for everyone.

The last year at Arthur Hill is the most memorable year. It's the year everyone looks forward to. The planning of graduation begins for some as far back as freshman year.

Everyone wants mementos of high school. There's the class ring to buy, pictures to be taken, announcements to be ordered, credit checks, being measured for caps and gowns and then finally the ceremony.

The more participation shown at Arthur Hill the more memories that are made. Special memories were acquired by most at Homecoming, during Blue and Gold week, at the King Arthur assembly, at the Prom and at the senior party.

Time doesn't wait for people to react. It is essential that people react before time passes them by. The time spent at Arthur Hill is what everyone makes it.

The seniors in this picture take one step closer to graduation by ordering their announcements.

Finding the Holy Grail was grounds for celebration for Matt Welch and Tom St. Onge.

Arthur Hill's athletic department offers a variety of sports that students may participate in. The sports catagories range from girls' tennis and volleyball to boys' swimming and football. Sports are offered to students who can keep their grades reasonably high and wish to participate. The activities students take part in bring out school spirit and for some open opportunities for the future.

Coaches Show Spirit and Expertise

A coach is defined as someone who trains athletes or athletic teams and gives private instruction. The coaches at Arthur Hill worked hard this year to have successful seasons. They prepared and organized their teams to their best potential. Coach Collins says, "it takes hard work and dedication on the team's part, but the coach has to put in just as much effort." Arthur Hill is lucky to have such outstanding coaches for its athletic teams.

Coach Tom Heinlein seems to be enjoying his first year as Arthur Hill Wrestling Coach.

Armed with brand new uniforms, the Varsity Sluggers took to the brand new playing field with their eyes set on the Valley Championship.

Composed of 19 players, 9 seniors and 10 juniors, the team never attained this goal; they were .500 for the season.

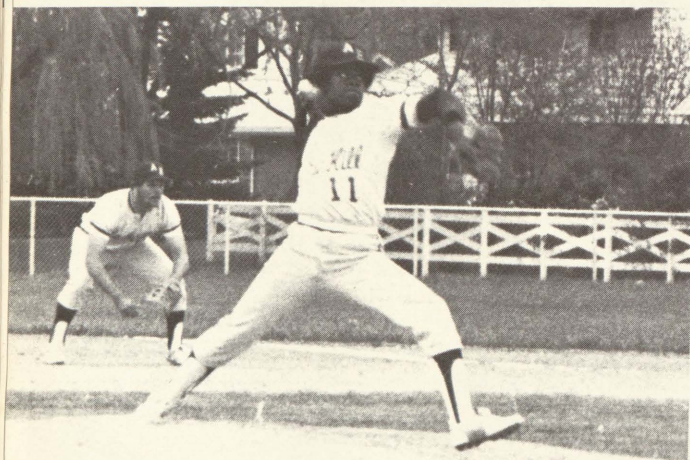

In spite of work outs at the YMCA and clinics where players learned infield, outfield, batting and pitching techniques, warm-up exercises and defensive plays, skills simply did not carry them through the season.

The highlight of the season was sweeping the first doubleheader at home against MacArthur with identical 8-7 scores. A two run homer in the bottom of the eighth by Andy Yacks gave the Hills the win.

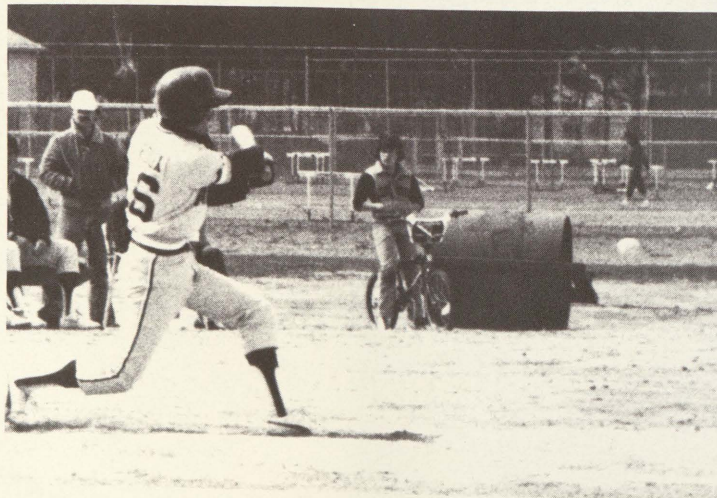

In the second twin bill, the pitchers walked 24 batters in 14 innings at Flint Southwestern.

This kind of inconsistency plagued the team throughout the season, eliminating them from the winner's circle.

New Facility isn't the Only Winner

J.V. Boys Finish Season 17-4

The Junior Varsity Baseball team had a great season. The sluggers ended the season with a 17-4 record that won them the Valley Championship.

The 83-84 team consisted of 17 players lead by Scott Martin, Larry Martin, and Marty Skelcy. The team's Most Improved Player was John Loucks.

According to Coach George Kubiak, this team was much better than the 82-83 team.

The team's toughest games were against Midland and Midland Dow, both of whom were narrowly defeated.

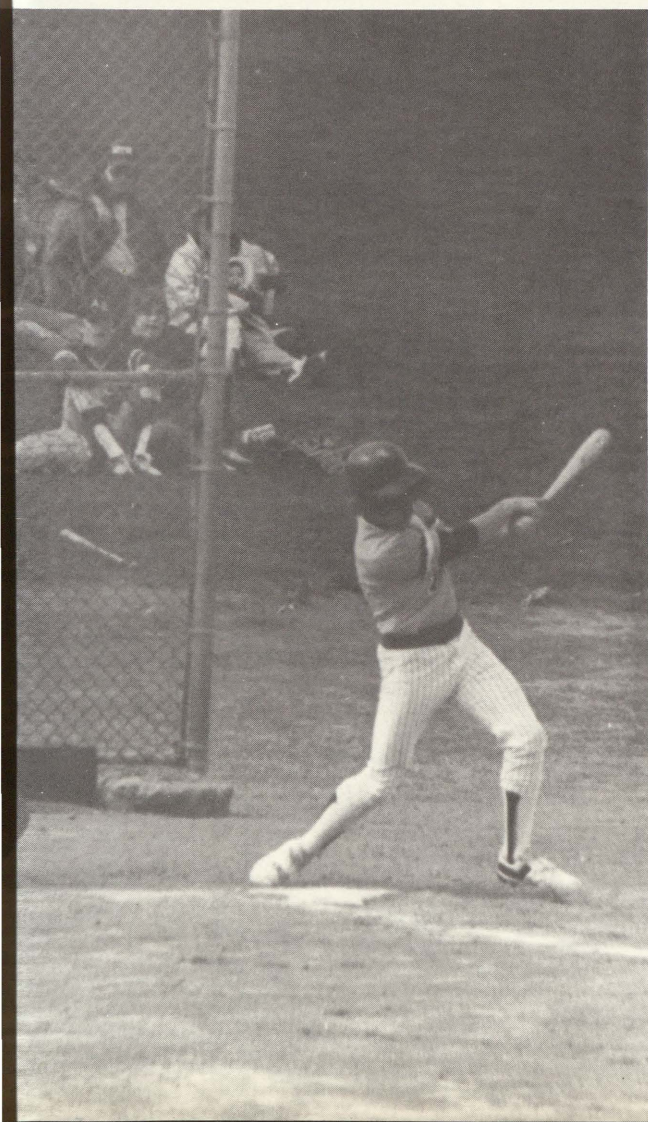

Getting officials to the games posed a problem to the team.

Kubiak said the new facility is much better than the old one.

Teamwork is what this year's Varsity Softball team has accomplished.

They started league play by defeating Flint Northern 6-2, and 9-1. Then went onto defeat defending Valley Champs, Bay City Western 11-9, but lost the night cap 0-7.

The lady sluggers' leading hitters were Shelly Bryant with a .429 batting average, Erin Flynn, with a .480, and Kim Santino, who also lead the team in RBIs and sacrifices, with a .364.

"A total team effort made the season competitive and extremely exciting," Coach Pat Teter said.

Captains Kirsten Sheets and Cindy Pena lead the team of 13 girls.

The team worked hard to improve through a summer team and weight lifting program, this helped them to execute the basic skills.

Arthur Hill took second place in the Midland Invitational. Then, going into the Alpena Invitational, the Hills were 16-5 overall. Alpena had a 3-1 lead, but Arthur Hill came back to score four more runs to take the title.

Mara Kanary had 20 strike outs, and a 21-6 record with a 1.5 ERA.

Sheets, who caught for all the games, "did a great job catching and hloiding the runners," Teter said.

Awards were given to: Kanary, MVP; Santino, MIP; Bryant, offensive; Sheets, defensive.

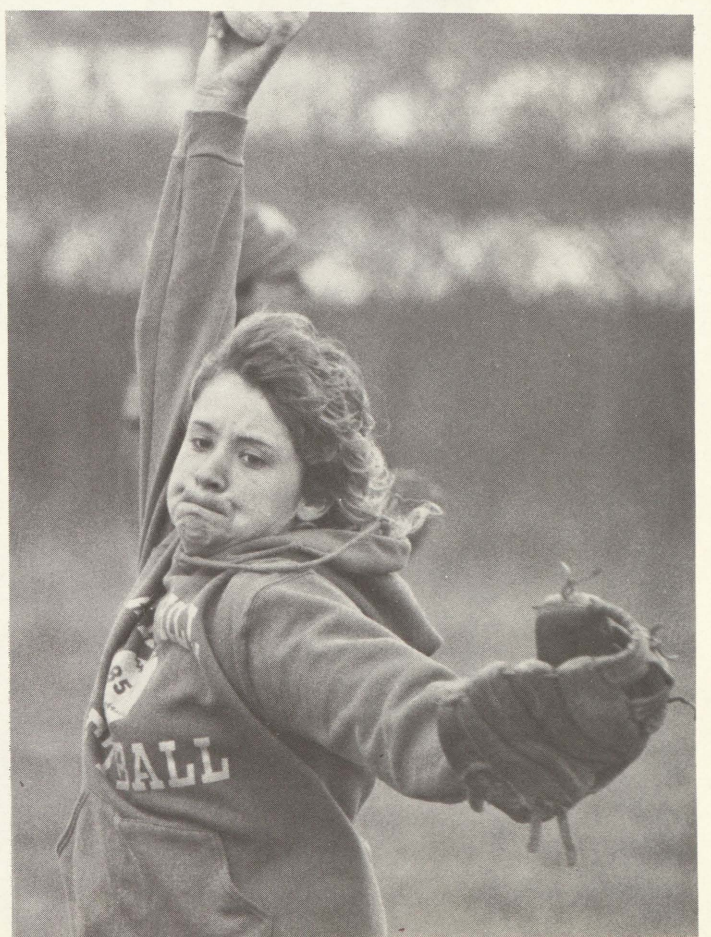

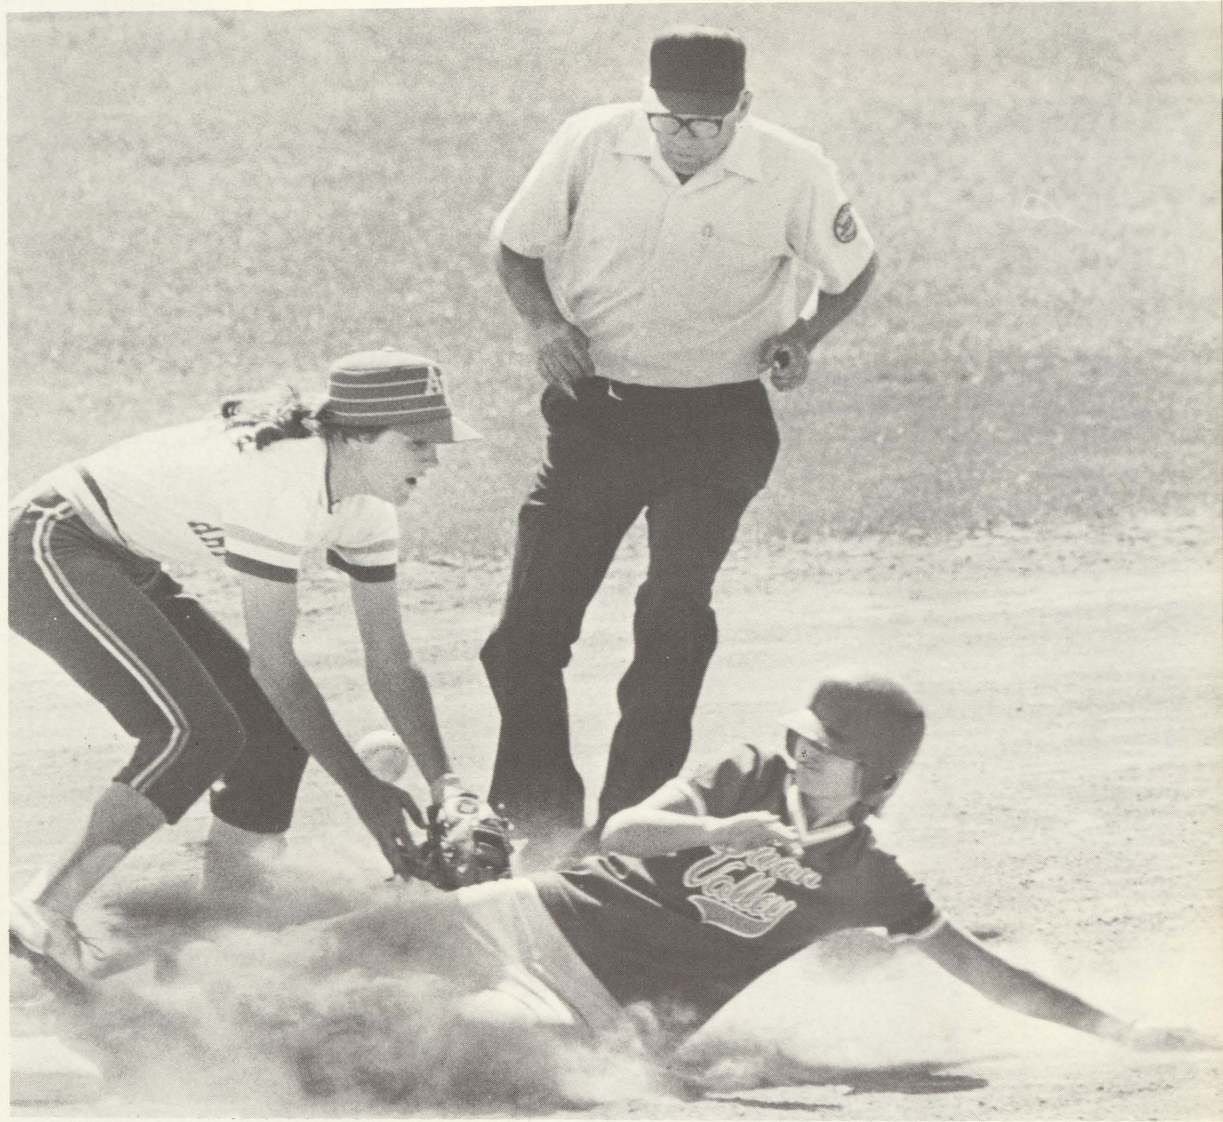

If psyching out the opponent gives any edge at all in this game, Mara Kanary is guaranteed another victory.

Shortstop Erin Flynn misses the throw to ward off a steal of second base during the fourth inning of the Midland Invitational.

Unaware of the umpire's call, Bridget Reimus focuses all of her attention on reaching home before her opponent reaches her.

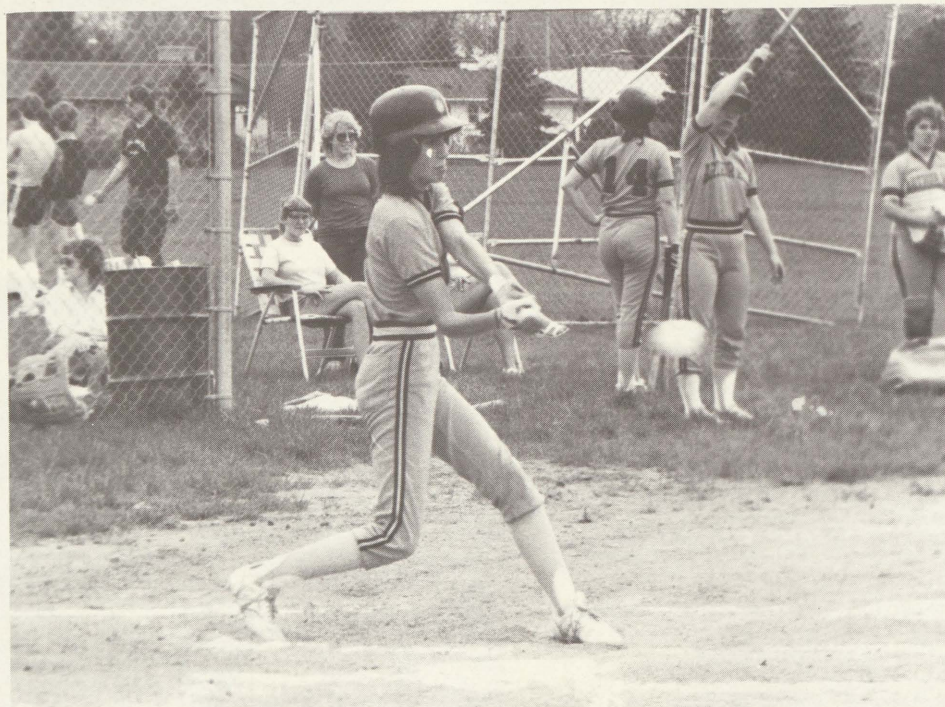

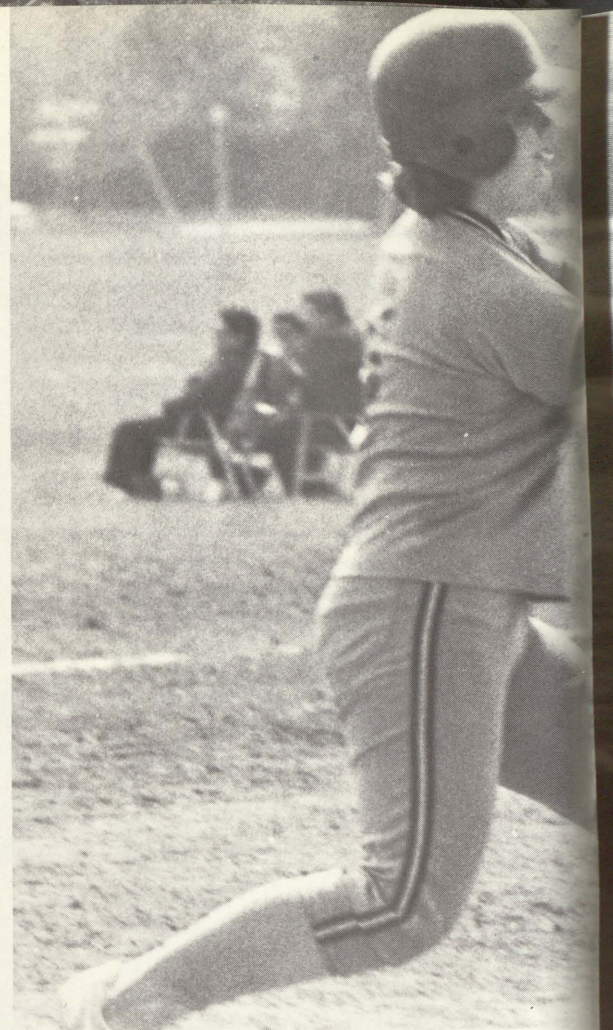

Eying the signal from catcher, Kirsten Sheets, Mara Kanary winds up for the pitch.

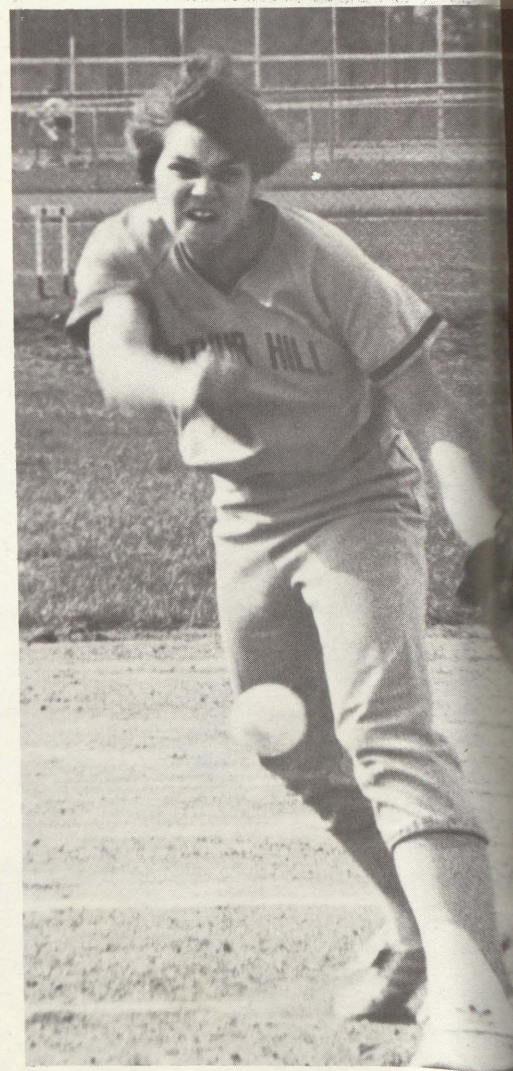

Arthur Hill baserunner Lisa Coffey tags up at second before her Western Opponent can tag her out.

Concentration is evident in her face as Heather Troup takes a level swing at the ball.

A mean release for Hillite pitcher Lisa Coffey.

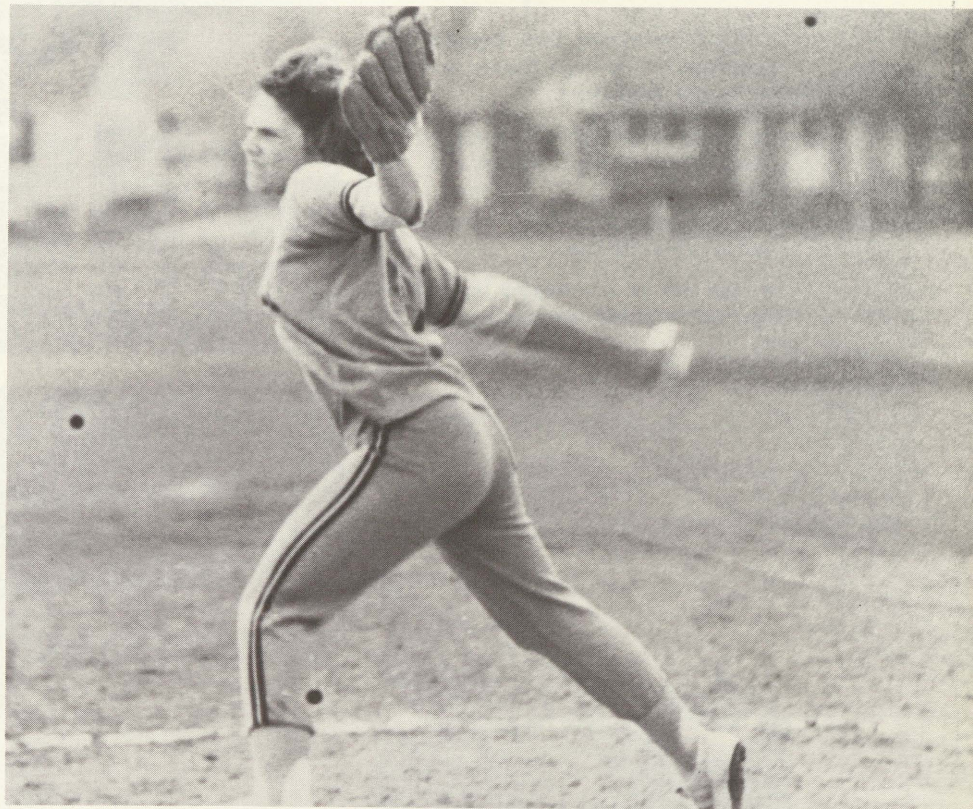

Arthur Hill's Lori Leuenberger makes a futile attempt at an out as her opponent slides in at third.

After catching the ball Lisa Coffey throws it back.

Collins Stresses Team Effort JV Softball Has Rough Season

The Junior Varsity Softball team had a really rough season, but they came out ahead.

Coach Milo Collins attributes the season's success not only to hard work, but also to the support the team members provided for each other.

Hard work and dedication paid off when the girls ended the season 14 and 8.

Collins' coaching experience also paid off. He has learned to stress team effort rather than individual effort. A positive team attitude makes a sport more enjoyable for both the team members and the spectators, Collins said.

Midland Dow, Bay City Central and Bay City Western proved to be the toughest competition for the JV ladies this season.

Leading hitters for the team were Rachel, Kaplan, Jodi Sharpe, Terri Shaler, and Renee Revard.

Collins predicted a strong 84-85 team, and another successful season.

Roster Shrinks; Track Team Sinks

Problems Plague Program

This year, the Boys' Track Team faced many difficulties. "Too many to list," claimed Coach Harvey Mattson.

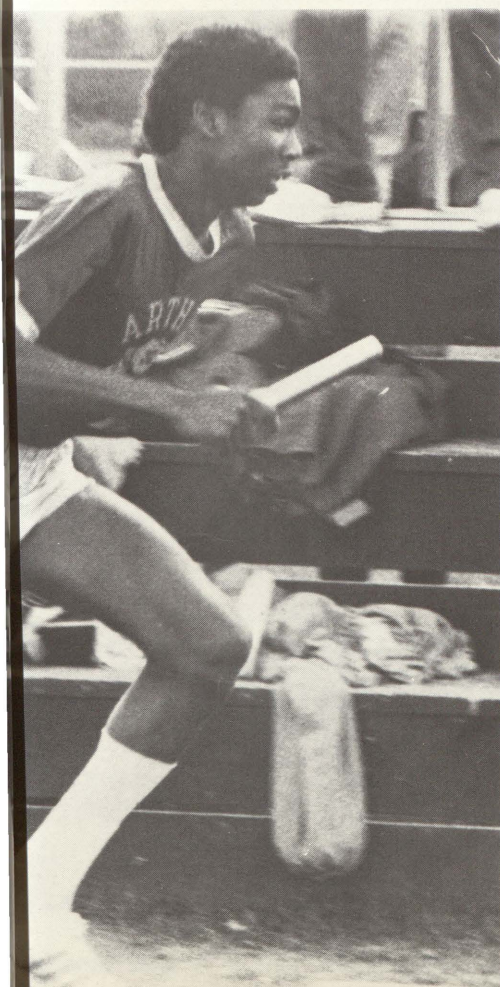

When the season started, the team was 30 members strong, by the end, there were only 14 left. Because the team was so small, it lacked depth. For instance, there were no sprinters, which is highly unusual for a high school track team. On the other hand, made up of Scott Day, Craig West, Robert Drain, Freddie Carter, Roy Kapp and Tim See, the team's distance program was very strong.

Although the cindermen didn't win any meets, the season saw many personal bests.

Season Sees Decline in Track Team

Few Use New Track Facility

Although this year's Girls' Track Team was small, members still managed to qualify for regionals.

Coach Lucie Davis, assisted by Coach George Ricklefs, started the season with over 20 girls, but ended up with only four. Injuries contributed to part of the loss.

Due to an injury Gwen Pearson was unable to attend the Valley Championship Meet. Unfortunately there was no one to replace her.

Phyllis Boli ended the season with a good performance in the Saginaw County Finals. She placed in the 440 and the high jump.

Other members included Patty Bunker and Kathy Palmer.

Practicing her baton trade-off, Gwen Pearson awaits her heat.

If friendship is what makes a good competitive team we have no problem, because members of the Varsity Basketball team were good players as well as good friends.

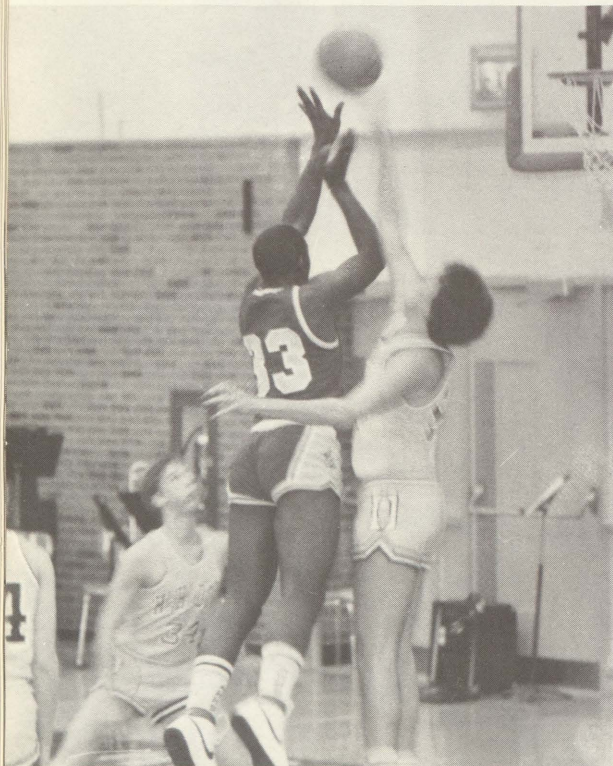

Captains of this year's team were Victor Corley and Luther Harrell. Corley was also named Most Valuable Player of the 1985-1986 season.

Each player performs his role and according to Coach Kubiak, each performs equally as well as another.

Kubiak claimed that the most competitive teams were Saginaw High and all of the Flint Schools. In spite of the stiff competition, however, this year's overall record was 12-9.

Seasoned Team Does Well in Regionals

This year's goals for the 1984-85 Girls' Tennis team were trying to have a winning season and to improve last year's record.

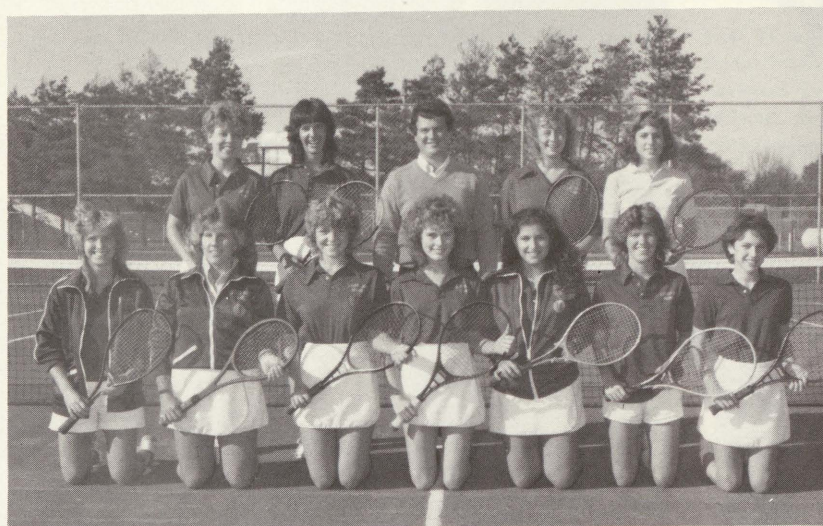

Coach John Fordney commented that his most outstanding players were mostly all seniors. Which included Amy Sierocki, Amy MacIntyre, Kendra Siems and Katie Knowlton.

This year's record did improve when Amy Sierocki defeated Midland Dow in the regionals, it placed them fifth out of eleven teams.

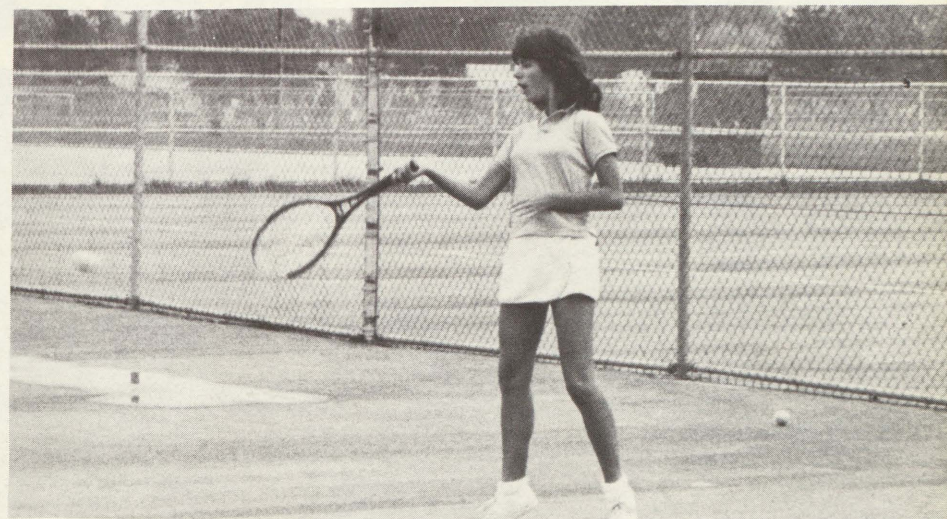

They will be losing a lot of seniors next year, but returning will be Paula Shinkel, Paula Bukaweski, Laura Peters and Elizabeth Knowlton.

Fordney is looking forward to a big sophomore turnout for next year.

The 1984-85 Icers went 6-3-1 for the season in the Saginaw Valley League.

Hard work and early morning practices paid off as the team came through when it really needed to.

Four seniors palyed their last game against Alpena at Verbeke Ice Arena: Tom Perry, Eric Nowosatka, Jim Baker and Brian Soule. The four veteran players lead their teammates to many victories.

The rest of the team will be back on the ice next year to face a tough schedule.

Except for the lack of spectators, Coach Dennis McLean had no regrets at season's end, "Team members gave all they had and that is all that counts."

You put a bunch of young hard-working wrestlers together and what do you get . . . ? Lots and lots of inner team spirit, supportiveness and sweat.

This year's wrestling team consisted of nineteen members, one manager-Lisa Thornhill, and two first year coaches-Tom and Randy Heinlein. The team captains were: Paul Feurstien, Steve Salace, and Joe Fila.

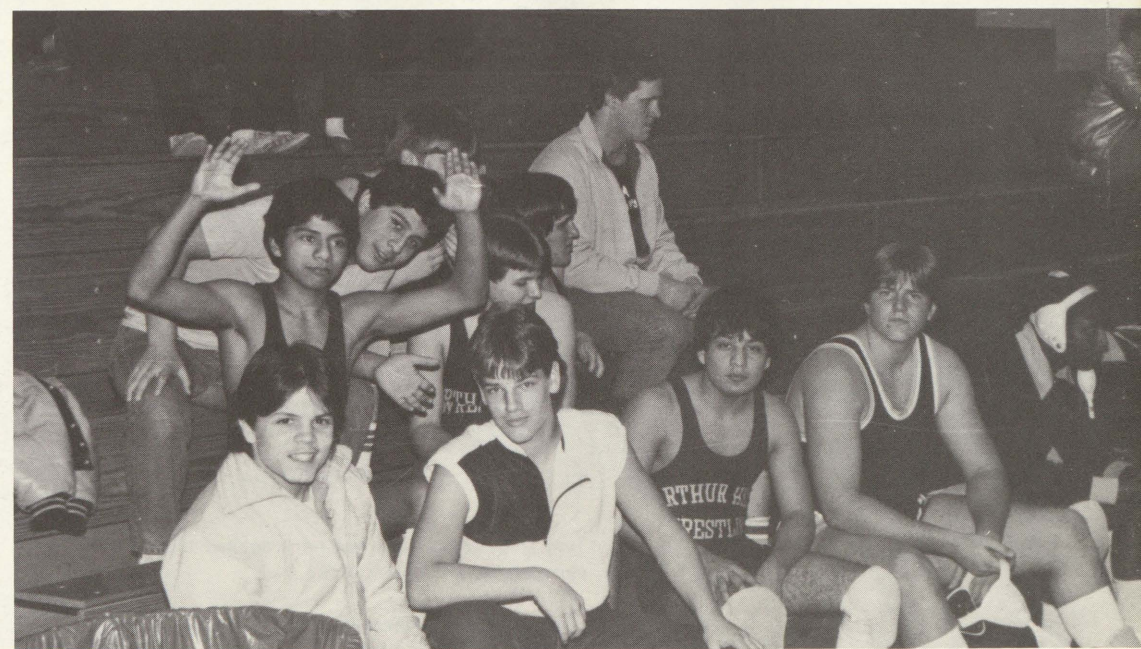

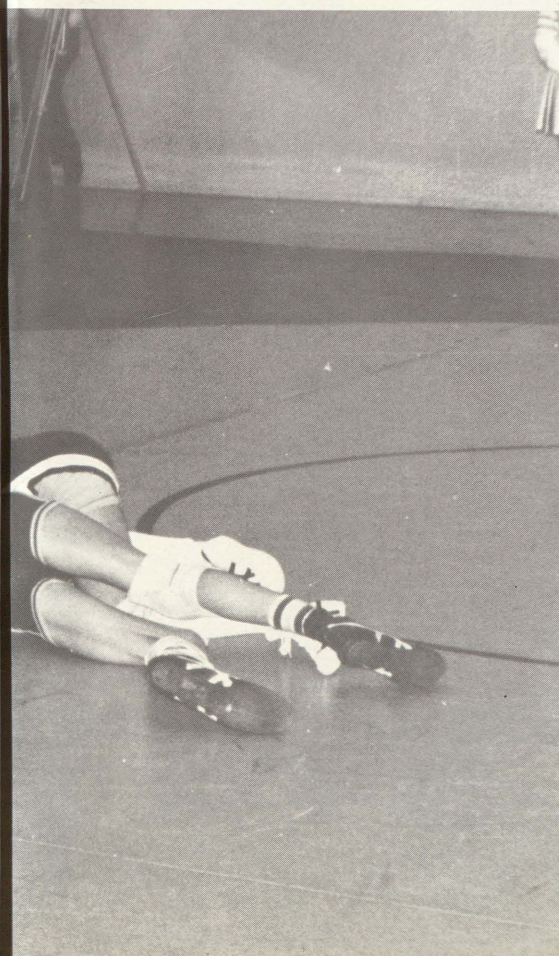

Out of these nineteen Joe Fila stood out as the best wrestler "record wise". Steve Salas, after recovering from a one year injury was also very strong. According to Coach Heinlein, the most improved wrestlers were: Tony Novak, Duane Covan, and Andre Richards. These three wrestlers were new comers with little experience. They came a long way and will probably be the backbone of the team next year.

Coach Heinlein said he enjoys coaching. "Athletics is just another art," he added. The best part of coaching for Heinlein was watching each of the wrestlers express his talent.

Arthur Hill swimming has dominated the Saginaw Valley League for the last 42 years, winning their 40th championship this year. The only teams to ever slip past Arthur Hill were Bay City Central in 1950 and Pontiac Central in 1978. This year's team consisted of a number of juniors and sophomores and four seniors: Mark Quast, Paul Rivera, Bob Johnson, and captain John Goss.

"We have twenty guys on the team and it takes an overall team effort to win," said coach Kent Howenstine. The swimmers ended their season with a 9-1 league record averaging 104 points per dual meet.

Girls have bad season but,...

Place Second In Valley

This year's girls' swim team had a bad season, they didn't do well in the meets, but that didn't dampen their spirits!

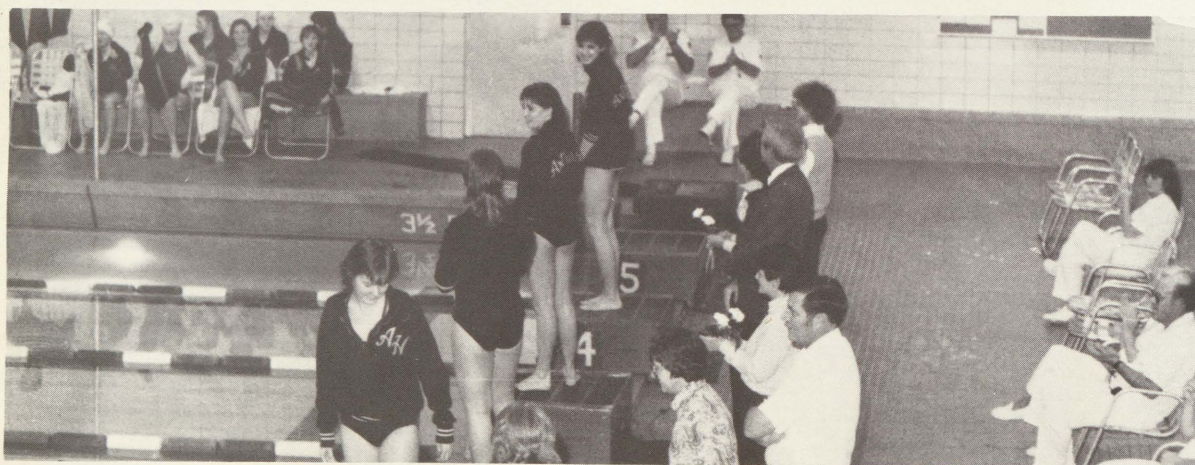

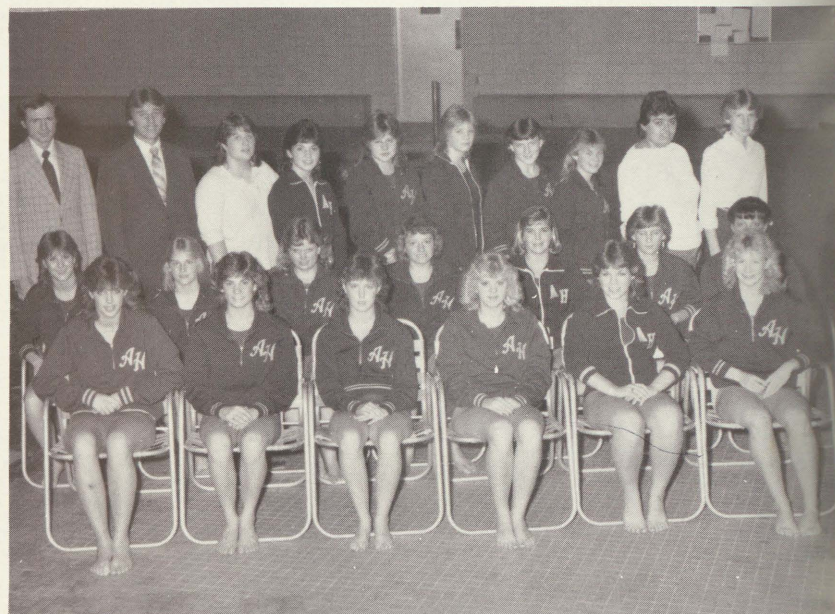

The girl's ranked third out of the eighteen entries in Valley Championship, Senior Elizabeth Willman ranked first in the diving competition.

This year's team consisted of three seniors, seven juniors, and six sophmores. Practicing often, the girls just couldn't compete with opponents, especially Midland.

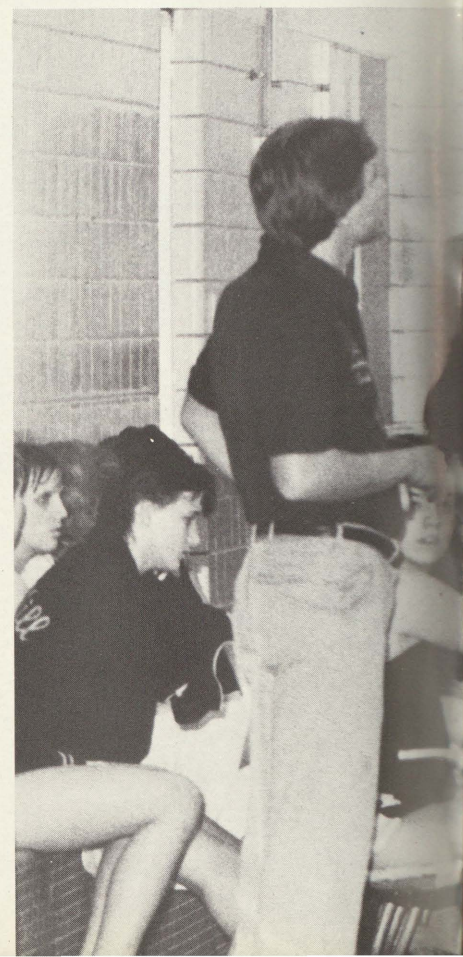

Coach Dale Purchase and Assistant Coach Jerry Ricklifs have much hope for a better season next year.

This year's Varsity Volleyball team had an unsuccessful season with only four wins and twenty-two losses. Coach Milo Collins said that the team lacked aggressiveness and was very poor on passing.

The top players for the team were Angie Johnson in spiking, Janice Yaklin in serving, and Chris Neal in setting. Collins named Tresha Rutch as the team's all-purpose player.

The goals for the season were to be able to work closely together as a unit; to play as hard as possible; and to know at the game's end that everyone did her best.

The JV Volleyball team went 5 and 5 this season under the direction of Coach Paul Sauvie.

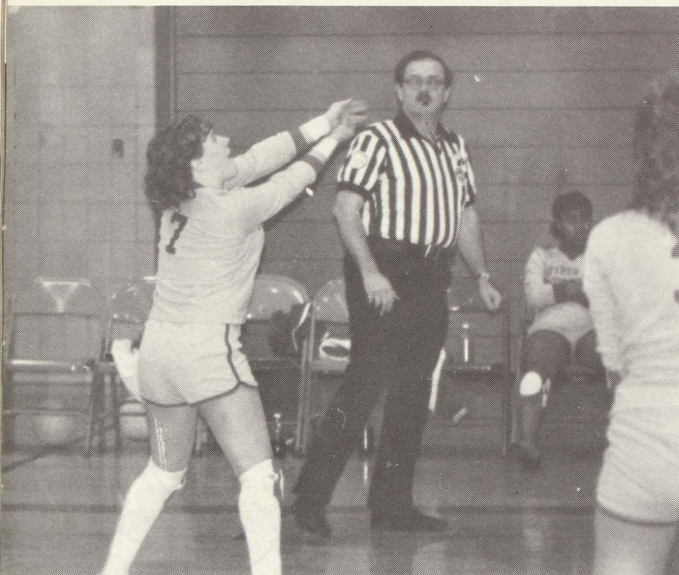

A hard worker with good attendance and a good attitude, Jenny Rethman was named the most valuable player by her Coach.

Sauvie named Flint Central and Bridgeport as the most difficult teams on the schedule.

For Sauvie, the highlight of the season came during the games against Bay City Western and Saginaw High when the team served 77 consecutive times without a fault.

Overall Sauvie felt that this year's record was improved by 300 per cent.

Varsity Status Next Year!

This year's soccer club has had an exceptional year with a record of nine wins and one loss who can complain? Next year has much more potenial for establishing soccer as a varsity and junior varsity game, whereas now it's only a club.

The club has two coaches, Ali Dasequi, and David Morford. Coach Morford stated that this year's club was, "aggressive and hard working". Next year when it becomes a more stable team, the players, consisting of only two seniors, will have good experience and preparation to become a varsity team.

The team's most over-all improved player was Leroy Yanna, the most vaulable offensive player was Chris Kleinbriel, and the most valuable defensive player was Sam Estes.

Cross Countriers Place Second in County

Potential is the word for this year's cross country team. The team consisting of eight runners did well in overall averages, and placed second in the county invitational.

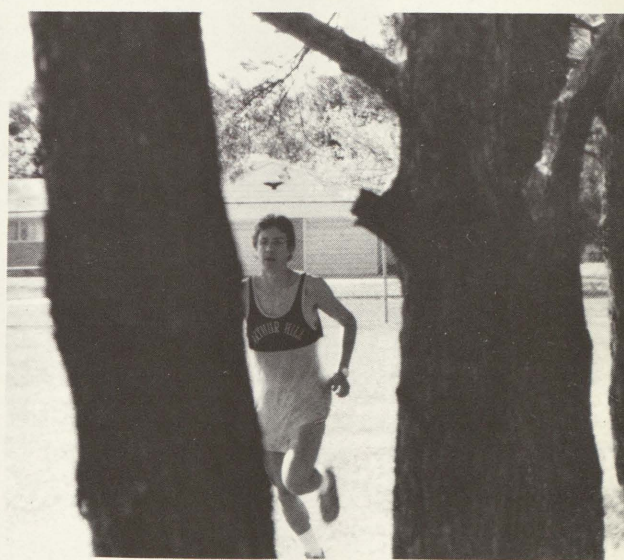

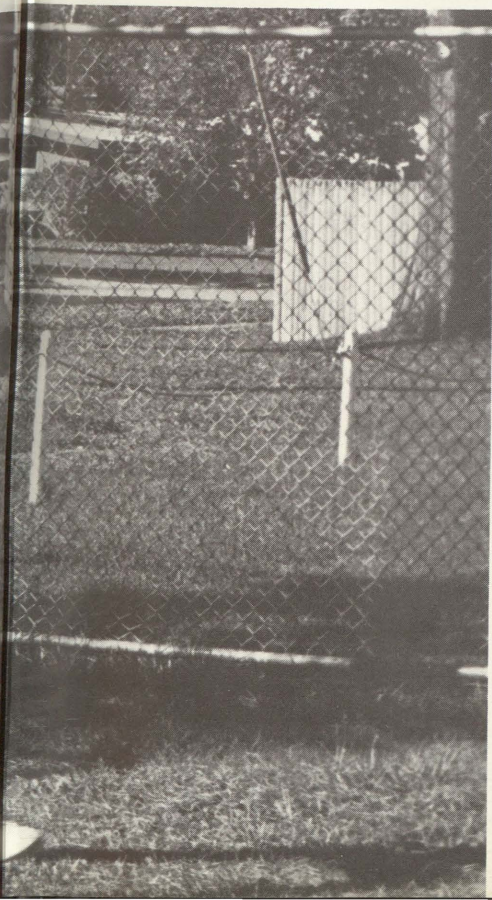

Coach Harvey Mattson stated that, "talent is not lacking on the team, but much training and practicing is necessary to qualify for State next year. Running takes a lot of commitment on the part of the runners."

Much of the competition this year came from Midland and Flint Central. Central ran extremely well, but hopefully, with practice Arthur Hill can beat them next year.

After losing last year's senior starting line-up, Coach Dick Thomas, who has been Varsity Golf Coach for five years, and the rest of the golfers had their work cut out for them.

Goals are not always reached. The 1984 Varsity Football team hoped to win the Valley Championship. Injuries prevented them from realizing that hope.

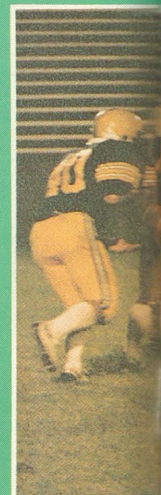

The team's leading tackler was Mike Peters. "He makes an excellent leader," Coach Ed Periard said. The number two tackler was Erwin Campbell, who was also the gridders leading halfback.

"Matt Waack had a great start with two 100-yard plus games in a row," Periard said. On both offense and defense, Luther Harrell did a fine job he added.

The New Wave is Moving Up

JV Gridders Earn Success under Oeming, Luxton

The J.V. football team started with the same jolt as the undefeated 1973 football team. They had a 6-1-1 season after the Traverse City game. Reflecting on the season, Coach Jeff Oeming said, "the team has shown that it has the ability to continue, and add to the winning Arthur Hill football tradition".

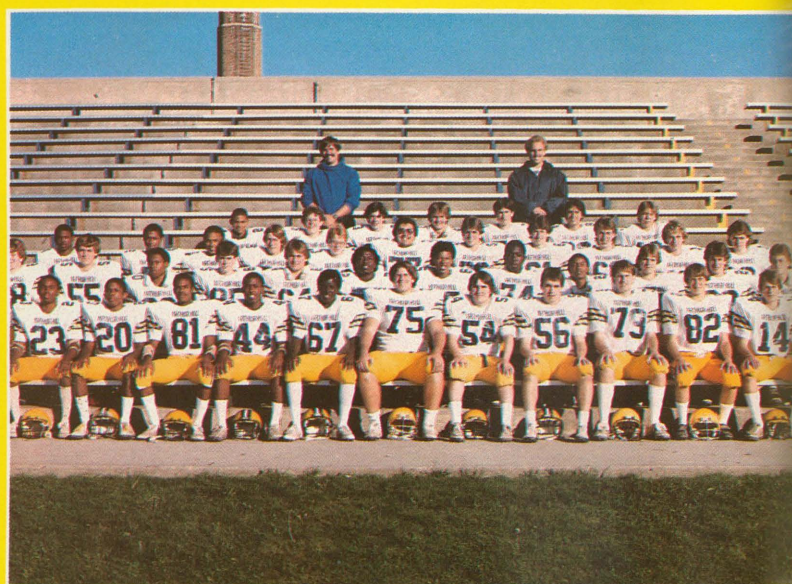

The hardest team to beat was Midland. "Our defense kept us in the game," Oeming said, "and we were able to win it 7-6 with a fourth quarter surge." For Oeming, the highlight of the season was a winning season for the team, including home victories over Midland and Bay City Central, and watching young people who came from many different junior high schools come together.

The leading scorer for the JV gridders was George Mushatt and half back Roland Rance provided big plays offensively. Greg Siems, Jacques Price and Rod Smith made the big plays on defense.

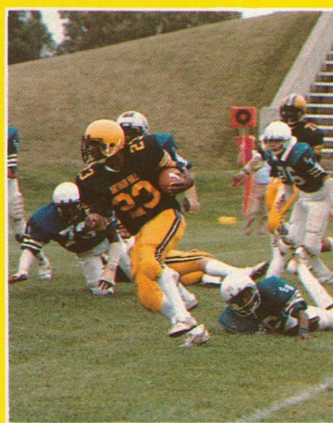

Oeming summed up his views on the team saying, "every team has its own personality. This team had a knack for making a big play at the right time. Which made up for what they lacked in consistency."

"Constant improvement throughout the season resulted in a successful season for this year's Varsity team," Coach Pat Teter said.

"The girls worked hard all season to improve their team and individual play," she said.

Teter felt that the strong point all season was the 2-3 defense lead by guards Junior, Alesia Strickland and Sophomore, Molly Minard.

Senior Co-Captains, Gwen Pearson and Erin Flynn led the team in scoring while Phyllis Boli, also a senior lead in rebounding. Depth was added to the team by Linda Burt. Teter felt that the varsity experience Burt gained will be valuable next season.

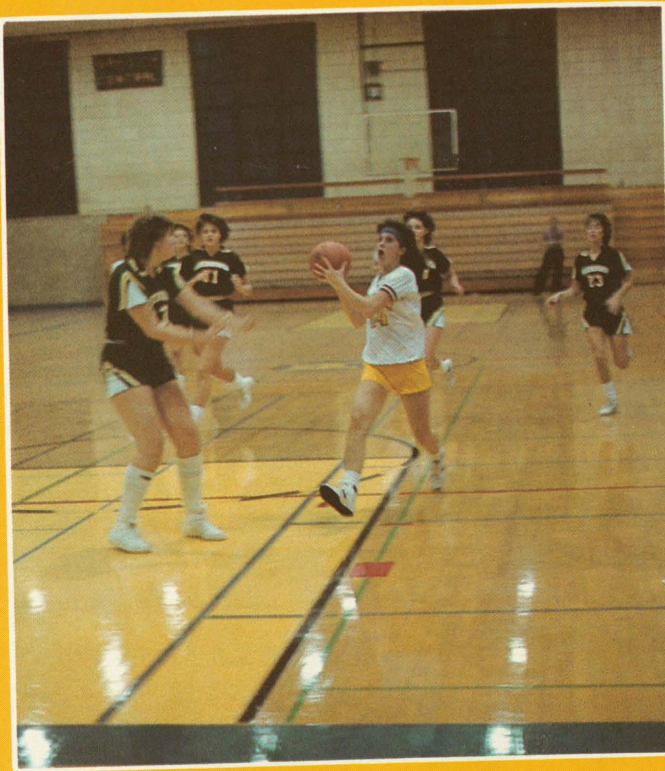

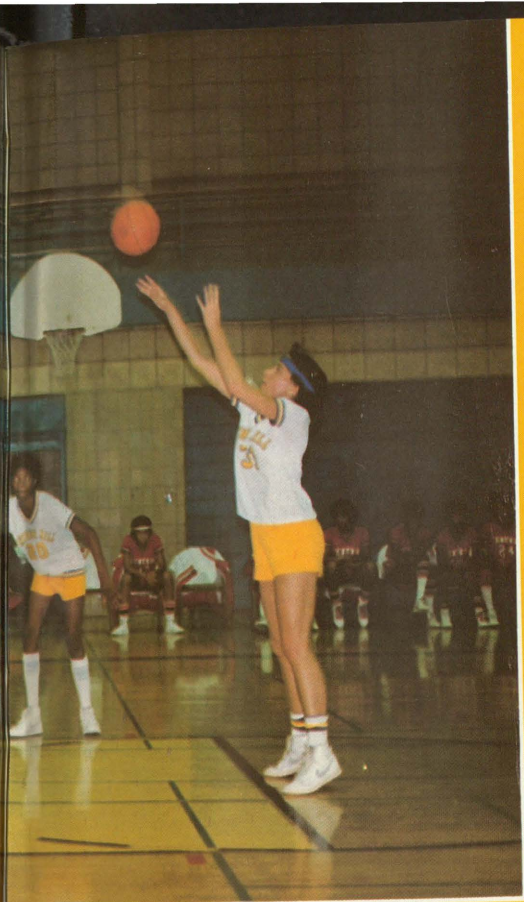

Early in the season, Teter realized the team had the talent to be a good pressing team, if everyone did their part, and they did.

Team Effort Helps Little Ladies Through Season

JV Spikers Geared Up!

This Year's Girls' JV Basketball team went 11-2 after 13 games. The season was a pleasant surprise to Coach Milo Collins because the girls molded together and never gave up in a game situation.

All of the teams they went up against were tough, but most of their competition this year came from Midland Dow, Flint Northwestern and Flint Northern. The teams the little cagers looked forward to playing most, were Saginaw High, Flint Northwestern and Midland Dow.

According to Coach Milo Collins, Velma Burt was the team's high scorer, while leading rebounders were Valerie McDole and Valesia Bates. Collins feels that the girls will be ready for varsity tryouts next year.

Good Times

Atop their Corvette awaiting the start of the parade, Mara Kanary and Katie Knowlton flash their winning smiles.

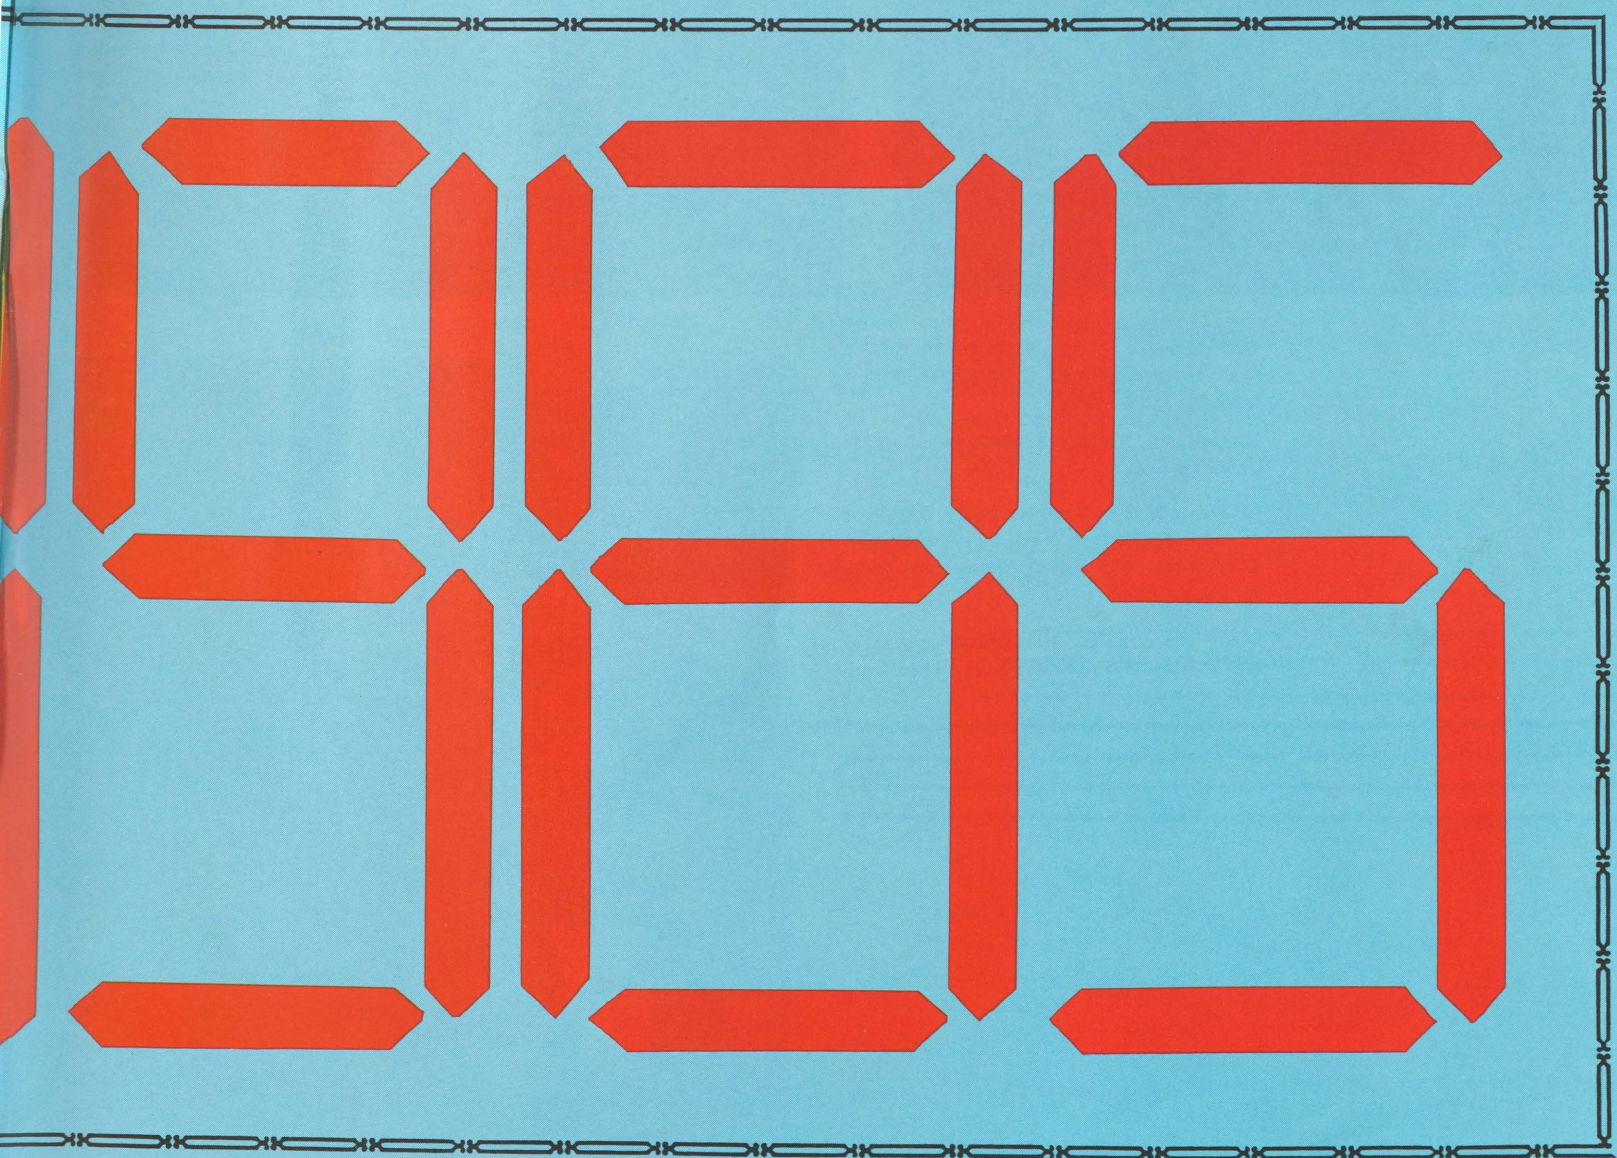

The ingredients for a good time are not difficult to come by. All that is necessary is a collection of friends, actually two will do, and a little space.

Hillites are no strangers to good times. Many of their after school hours are spent with friends at school. Football games, dances, practices, meets, meetings and matches are always a good time when shared with friends.

The school sponsors many of the activities that will be remembered long after mementos have fallen out of memory books; events such as Homecoming, Blue and Gold Week, Donkey Basketball, Faculty/Student games, Powderpuff, King Arthur, the Prom, Senior Party and, of course, Commencement.

Weekends provide even more time for sharing. Parties, shopping, late night snack attacks, and talking long into the night with a close friend are not uncommon occurrences.

Nothing comes as a surprise, no opportunity for fun is ever passed up by any self respecting Lumberjack.

50th Queen Stuckey Makes Arthur Hill History

Time stood still Friday, September 28th for Pamela Stuckey. Arthur Hills' first black Homecoming Queen will remember and cherish it for the rest of her life. She was crowned by the 1983-84 queen, Jessica Ihler. The 50th annual Homecoming assembly was brightened with blue and gold balloons and crepe paper streamers.

In accordance with tradition, the Homecoming court and Queen were escorted by Senior members of the Varsity Football team.

Pam's father made a speech to congratulate his daughter and the other girls on the court. Lionel Richie's "Stuck on You", performed by the jazz choir was this year's theme.

Although it was a tough act to follow, the queen, attendants, and court members performed their annual skit answering questions using parts of popular songs. The standing room only audience roared it's approval.

Rain, Rain, Go Away... Rain Strikes at Parade

Once again the Hillites showed their spirit against the Bay City Western Warriors in their floats.

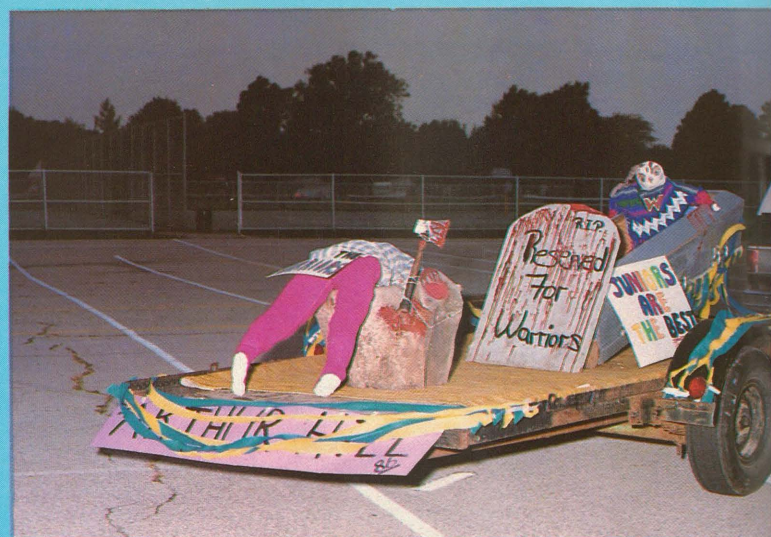

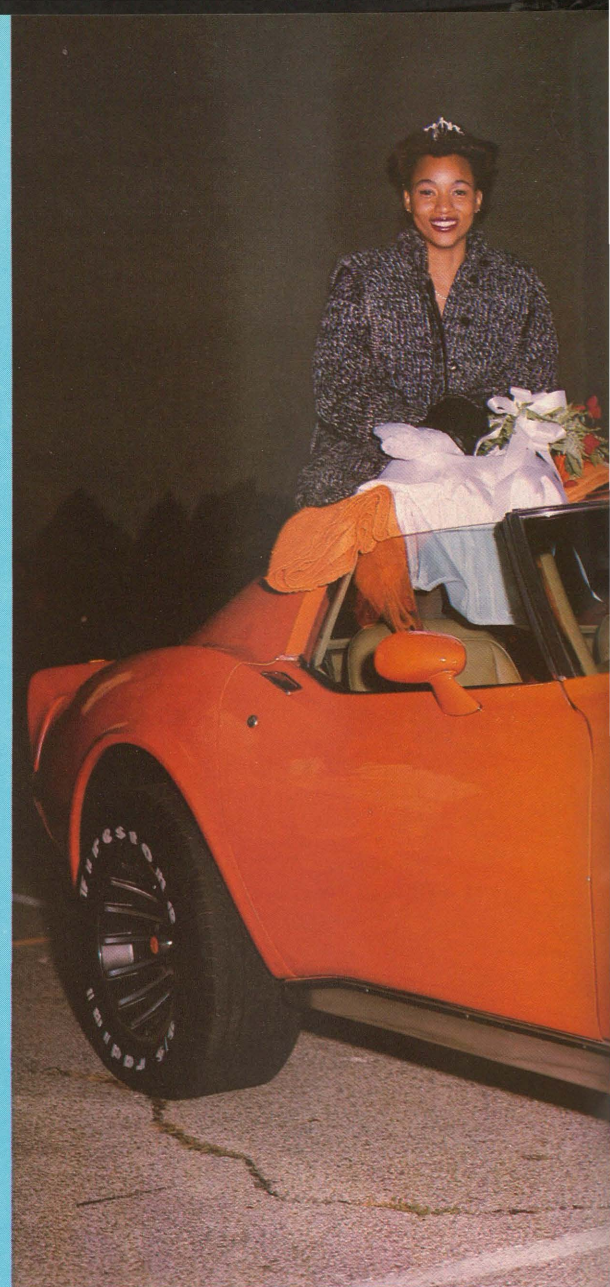

Few spectators braved the rain and winds to applaud float efforts by all three classes. In spite of the weather, Queen Pam and her court managed to wave and smile as they proceeded along the traditional parade route.

Even though much time was spent on all floats, the juniors took first place with their Tombstone theme.

People working on the winning float were Kim Morea, Al Martinez, Shirley Cruz, Pam Sokol, Leroy Yanna and Karen Frick.

Juniors scalped the sophomore float team...good slogans aren't always enough.

Golden Anniversary Spectrum of Color

This year's Fiftieth Homecoming Court was traditionally Paraded around the field during halftime. After the Procession each girl was formally introduced with her parents or relatives.

The next events ended halftime with a big bang. Routines by the Marching Band, the Pom Pon girls, and the cheerleaders thrilled the audience. Announcements of the winners of the Float and Hall contests were next. Hillite Seniors won Second place in float, and first place in hall decorations. The juniors class won first place in float, and second place in hall decorations, our sophmores (keeping with tradition) came in last place in both contests.

Tradition Broken

Juniors Upset Seniors 6-0

Usually the Senior girls win the powderpuff game, well, this year the Juniors won.

The final score was Juniors-6, Seniors-0. Running back Janice Hammond made the only scoring touchdown. Junior Renee Revard gave the team a lot of their yardage.

The seniors came close to scoring a few times, but the juniors had a great defense and out played them.

The juniors participating were: Mary Baldwin, Jill Bellinger, Mandy Bernal, Marie Braddock, Amy Brown, Kirsten Ciolek, Michelle Costin, Beverly Eddy, Kelly Fisher, Lisa Furlo, Janice Hammond, Leigh Hammond, Jill Henning, Anne Marie Howe, Joanna Polzin, Renee Revard, Aurora Rivera, Tresha Rutch, Jodi Sharpe, Tina Steiner, Ginger Timm, and Barb Valdiserri. Amy Baldwin signed up, but due to an accident, could not play.

The Junior Coaches were: Todd Cottrell, Todd Pawlik, John Loucks, Bill Kunding, Marty Skelcy and Jim Diffell.

Cold Weather Doesn't Stop Crowd

The P.A.C. Fiesta, usually, the Chicken Barbecue, was held in September this year.

Even though it is usually warmer in September than it is in October, it was unusually cold this year. Because of this there were only 100-150 people attending the Fiesta.

Entertainment this year included the dunking machine and the Powder Puff game. The pom-pon girls even got a balloon-dart game together and gave away candy bars as prizes to the winners.

A very special treat was country-western singer, Frank Lugo. He was on his way to Texas to sing and he took time to sing for the crowd. Mr. Lugo usually works at Casa del Rey.

King Arthur: Memories in the Making

The 1984-85 King Arthur Court made history at Arthur Hill. For the first time there was a black King Arthur. The King was Luther Harrell, and his attendants were Darren Duby as Sir Lancelot, and Jimmie Holiday as Sir Gallahad.

The other attending court members were Matt Waack, Ken Turner, Jim Summerfield, Chad Stuart, Mike Peters, Eric Nowasatka, Jeff Goss, Anthony Essex, and Victor Corley.

It is one of the greatest honors at Arthur Hill to be elected a member of King Arthur's Court.

Ballots were cast on Monday during Blue and Gold week and the announcements were made at the Thursday assembly. As each court member passed under the trellis, he was given a stuffed toy and a kiss by his varsity pom pom escort.

Dressing to Beat the Band!?!

Dress up days always involve more students than any other school sponsored activity. Faculty and staff even get into the spirit of the Blue and Gold dress up days.

Parading through the halls the second week in February an astute observer might have seen students garbed in anything from garbage bags to night gowns. Faculty enthusiasts sported tuxedos and bright and colorful clothing.

Prizes were awarded to the best dressed Lumberjacks: Diane Gorney and Ms. Clemens; and Craziest costumes: Amy McIntyre and Ms. Clemens. Winners received Spirit Packages containing Lumberjack clothing, window stickers, pencils pins and license plate holders.

Spirit Slump Evident During Blue Gold Week

Sleuths Tom St. Onge and Matt Welch recovered the Holy Grail in the second annual search. At the Thursday assembly, the duo was awarded with decrees, teddy bears, hats, fuzzy dice and pins. Welch, a sophomore was awarded a special pin, a monogrammed AH diaper pin.

But the Holy Grail was only one of many activities held Blue and Gold Week. On Monday at Lunchtime a Free Throw contest was held in the Gym. Making 15 out of 15 shots for the seniors was Todd Jones. Jones was followed closely by Junior Devron Beard who made 12 out of 15. In last place for the sophomores was Keith Cooper.

Monday was also teacher appreciation day. The PAC treated the teaching staff to lunch in the teachers' dining room and flowers were presented and doughnuts were available to teachers in the community room.

Tuesday brought about the annual PAC pancake breakfast and Lumberjack Day. Diane Gorney and Ms. Clemens won the Lumberjack look-alike contest.

The annual student council/faculty basketball game, the tricycle race and crazy dress up day were all on Wednesday. Crazy award winners were Amy McIntyre, Robin Hunter and Ms. Clemens. The seniors demonstrated their prowess at tricycle riding by defeating both juniors and sophomores. Finally the Faculty trounced the students 36-30 in the big game.

Overall, fewer people participated in the annual Blue Gold Festivities.

"If You've Got the Time, We've Got the . . . . ."

Freetime, there just isn't enough of it accordint most students.

Junior, Kelly Raymond said, "The teachers load us down too much," which cuts into freetime considerably.

In general, the most popular way to spend freetime is partying. When students couldn't find parties to attend, girls preferred writing notes or talking on the phone to friends. Conversely, guys opted for more active passtimes, such as weight lifting, and scrimmaging with the gang.

When all else failed, Hillite students busied themselves watching television. What would a day be like with out a dose of MTV?

Eighties Trends Lead To Ambiguity

Remember hula hoops, bicycles built for two, peddle pushers, footlong hot dogs, mirrored sun glasses and rubics cubes? Each had its day in the limelight. Each is a trend from yesterday or yesteryear. Like bluejeans, each faded with over use.

Today students participate in their own trends, fads that they have made popular themselves. Current biggies are parachute pants, leg bandanas, earrings, breakdancing, music videos, leather pants, twenties clothes, the wet look (can bell bottoms be far behind?), make up, muscle shirts, layered clothing, the bob, leather, spiked and sequined gloves, spiked wristbands and belts, and double wrap belts.

Probably the single most important trend of the day is the asexual look-men that look like women and women that look like men. Leaders of this craze were Michael Jackson, Prince and Boy George; Annie Lennox and Grace Jones.

A Time For Everything

DEAR MS. PRETTY ENGLISH TEACHER -

DO YOU REALLY THINK THERE'S ENOUGH ROOM IN THIS BOOK FOR ALL I HAVE TO SAY? I'VE KNOWN YOU FOR 2 YEARS, BUT I'VE REALLY ONLY KNOWN YOU FOR 2 MONTHS, AND YET THERE'S STILL SO MUCH I WANT TO KNOW ABOUT YOU. (IS THAT GOOD ENGLISH? NOW I'M PARANOID) ARE YOU AWARE OF HOW MUCH I ENJOY BEING AROUND YOU? ARE YOU AWARE OF WHAT A BUBBLY MOOD YOU'VE PUT ME IN? DO YOU KNOW YOU MAKE ME BUZZ INSIDE? WHEN I TRY TO FIGURE OUT THIS MAGIC YOU HAVE, ALL I CAN THINK OF IS HOW COMFORTABLE I FEEL WITH YOU. I REALLY CARE. SO, WITHOUT GETTING TOO DEEP HERE, REMEMBER WHEN YOU'RE READING THIS IN THE YEAR 2000, I MEANT IT. AND YOU PROMISED WE'D STILL BE FRIENDS THEN. -I'LL BE CHECKING ON YOU OVER THE SUMMER TO MAKE SURE YOU HAVE A GOOD ONE! LOVE YA -Don-

Arthur Hill has a lot of exciting things for students to get involved in and one of them is clubs and organizations. There are sport, academic, and spirit clubs.

The Pep Club and The Black Studies Club gave quite a few dances this year. The other clubs spent their time taking trips, raising funds, and (most of all) having fun!

New clubs joined the list this year. One was the Drama Club. It was formed for students with any kind of dramatic interest. Under the direction of Mr. Don Durrett, it worked out just fine. A second new club is the Sign Language Club. Sponsored by Mrs. Mary Spadafore and attended by students and teachers alike. This club, with awareness of another culture as its goal, prospered.

The 1984-85 school year was already exciting, but these great Arthur Hill clubs and organizations made it even better.

Vice President Chad Stuart and Treasurer Pam Jennings listen to opening remarks by Student Council Advisor, Mr. Knight.

Student Council: A Club With Responsibilities

Student council is made up of three grades. These students try to improve Arthur Hill. They also work on projects and plan activities for the student body.

During the summer time council members plan activities to raise money. This summer they worked at the Zilwakee Festival they had a stand there to earn money for our student body.

Homecoming, Blue and Gold week and numerous other activities in the school were all attempts to get students interested and involved in their school. The main responsibility of the Senior's Council was planning of the annual Senior Prom and party, which requires work throughout the school year.

At the end of the school year the students prepare to elect executive officers and representatives to start for the next school year.

Sophomores Laurie Sproull, Rosa Murray and friends entertain the crowd.

Varsity Cheerleaders Cathy Combs, Marlana Chaffer and friends cheer the basketball team on to victory.

Showing their enthusiasm are sophomores Sara Maul and Ruth Markey.

Let's Hear it for the Girls!

Although Ms. Debbie Lively has coached the Cheerleaders for the past four years, this year's squad was different from the rest, because of its gymnastic ability.

Lively said the squad had more general experience which enabled the girls to participate, and place third in Regional Competition and qualify for State Competition.

Cheerleading requires hard work and cooperation. The cheerleaders practice anywhere from three to twenty hours each week before stepping before a crowd at basketball and football games.

Coach Lively welcomes guys at tryouts as a guy can lift easier than a girl because he has more muscle mass.

The King Arthur assembly is just one of the Varsity Pom Pon Girls, opportunities to show their stuff.

Wham Routine Earns Varsity First Place

JV Attends First Competition

This year Arthur Hill had a much larger Pom Pon squad. On Varsity there were 16 girls and on JV there were 12 girls. For the first time this fall the Varsity squad took first place in Dance and Prop Routine Competition, in Howell. The Varsity girls performed their routine to the Wham hit "Wake Me Up Before You Go Go", before three judges and eleven other schools to take the prize.

This year's JV Pom Pon squad attended the competition for the first time to gain experience before joining the Varsity squad.

The Pom Pon squad held car washes and candy sales beginning in the summer to earn money for their new uniforms.

In order to be on the Pom Pon squad, girls must have a 2. average and be able to do a cartwheel and the splits.

Tryouts are held each spring.

More News . . . Sooner and Better

First semester newspaper students strove to bring Arthur Hill a better paper. Newspaper is a one semester course, after a semester in journalism class, beginning students move into newspaper for an opportunity to experience writing stories, doing layouts, paste ups, and computer work. Staffers are responsible for typing, reporting, writing, ad sales, layouts and photography as well as distribution of the paper.

A monthly paper, the Arthur Hill News is subscribed to by nearly 1,000 students and is widely read in the community.

Generally published only eight times each year, the staff got a head start this election year. Under Editor-in-Chief, Richard Kramer, it managed to produce ten issues.

Yearbook: Endless Cycle of Deadlines

The Arthur Hill yearbook class is taught by Ms. Renee Clemens. Some people took this class because they thought it would be an easy A. Not true!

The first marking period in Yearbook is predominantly learning how to draw layouts with those who already know how, helping those who don't.

In order to earn an A yearbook students must sell one hundred dollars worth of ads. Money brought in from ad sales subsidizes the cost of the book and decreases the price students pay for their Pub Stub.

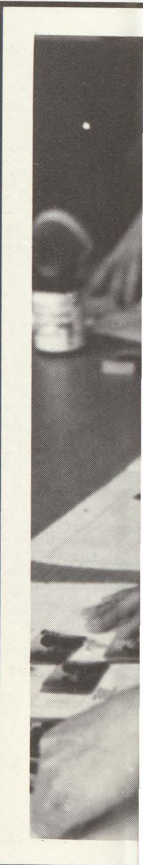

Ad sales and layouts are just the beginning. The next steps are learning how to take pictures and pushing for deadlines. Sometimes students found it necessary to stay after school to finish their spreads on time.

The pressure to meet deadlines stays on until the winter sports end and the spring sports begin. In between deadlines, the class members enjoy the freedom to be or do whatever they choose.

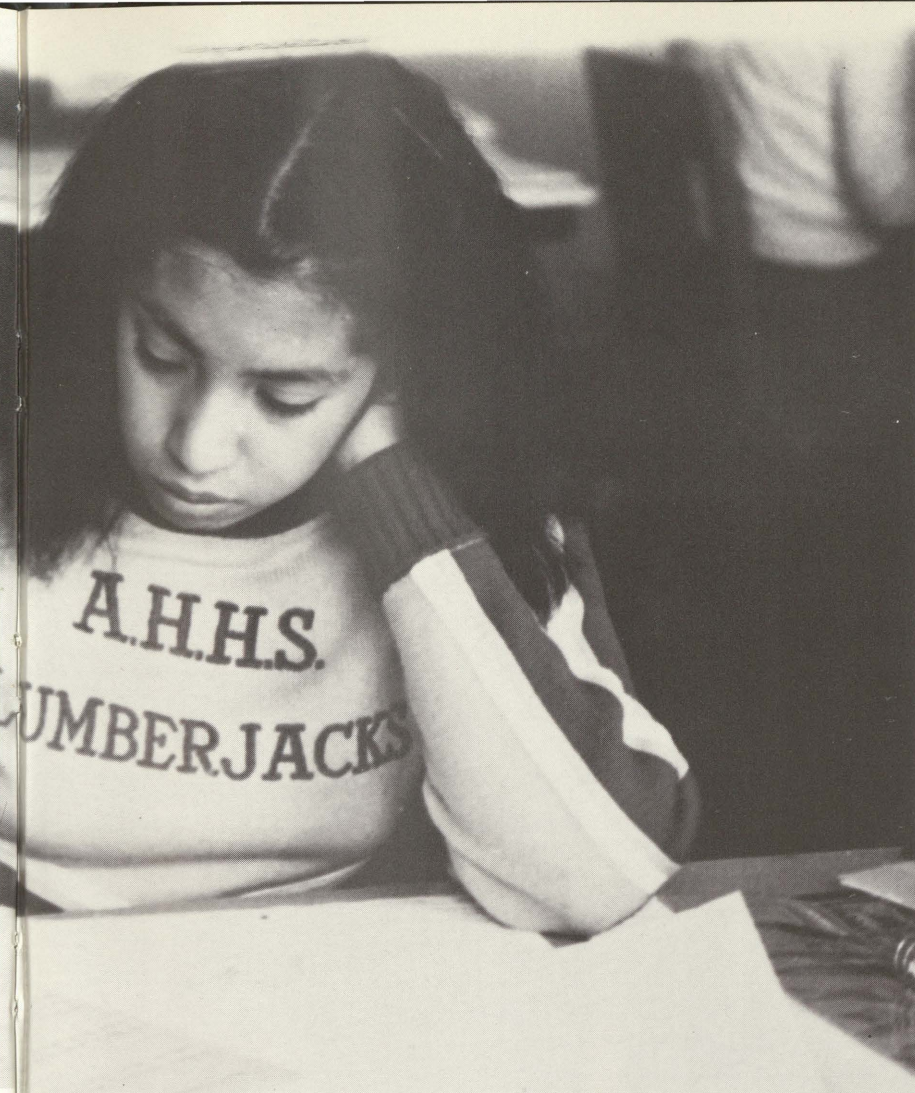

Organization is the key to success; Lochelle Washington sorts pictures for paste up.

Finished preparing her spread, Onalee Reid packages her pages for delivery.

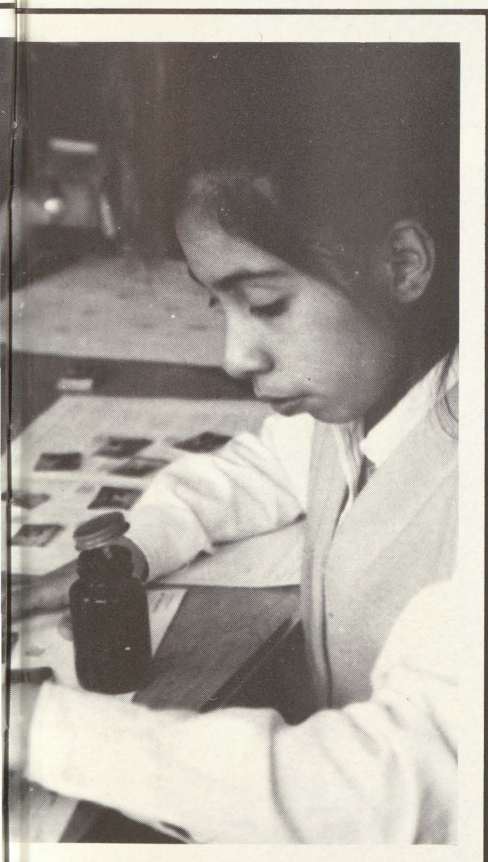

Veteran staffer, Esther Samaniego writes captions for her spread.

As Jim Turner looks on, advisor Miss Clemens selects a negative for printing.

Team work makes any job easier; here Angie Kallos and Kerri Ramirez work together on a story.

The 1984-85 Legenda staff takes a breather from its hectic schedule.

Jazz Choir members demonstrate their ability to dance to the music they create.

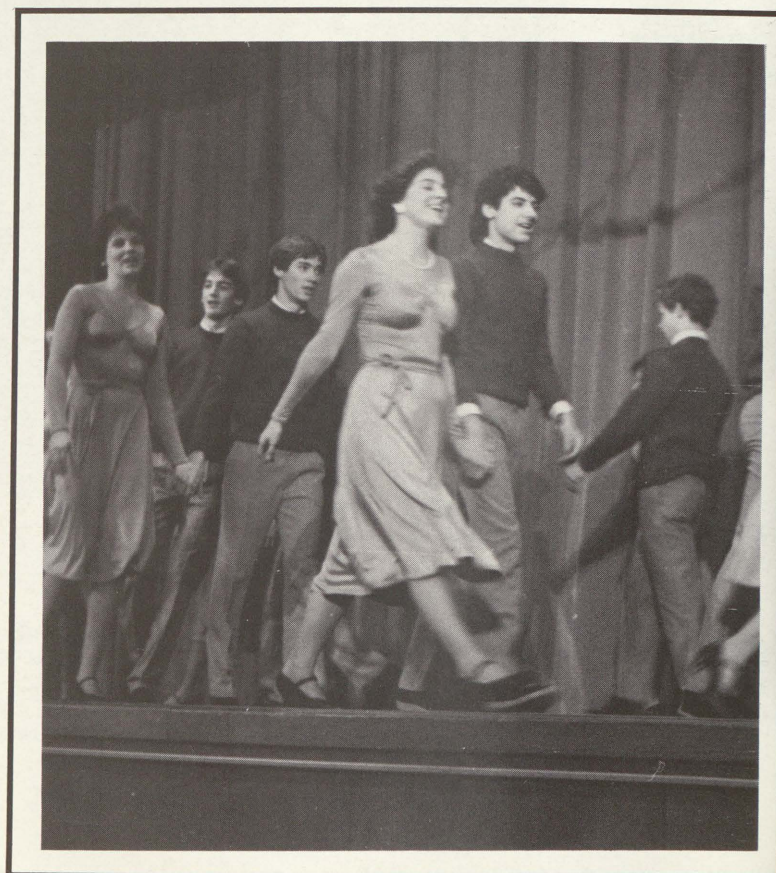

Partner dancing is part of the Jazz Choir requirement.

Mixed Choir performs a jazzy rendition of Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer.

Choreography plays a big part in most Jazz Choir numbers.

Performing their opening number "HERE WE ARE" members of the Jazz Choir entertain the students at the annual Christmas Concert.

Hillite Choirs Shine with Talent

Spreading fun and entertainment to all who listened were the Mixed Choir and the award winning Jazz Choir. These groups have successfully entertained student and community groups throughout the school year.

Made up of both young men and women who enjoy singing, the Mixed Choir performed at the Fall, Christmas and Spring Concerts. Their final performance annually is the Vespers Ceremony.

The distinguishing characteristic of the Swing Choir is the choreography. Not only do members of this choir have to sing, but also dance with partners simultaneously. The Swing Choir is requested to sing for many community groups and attends voice competitions each year.

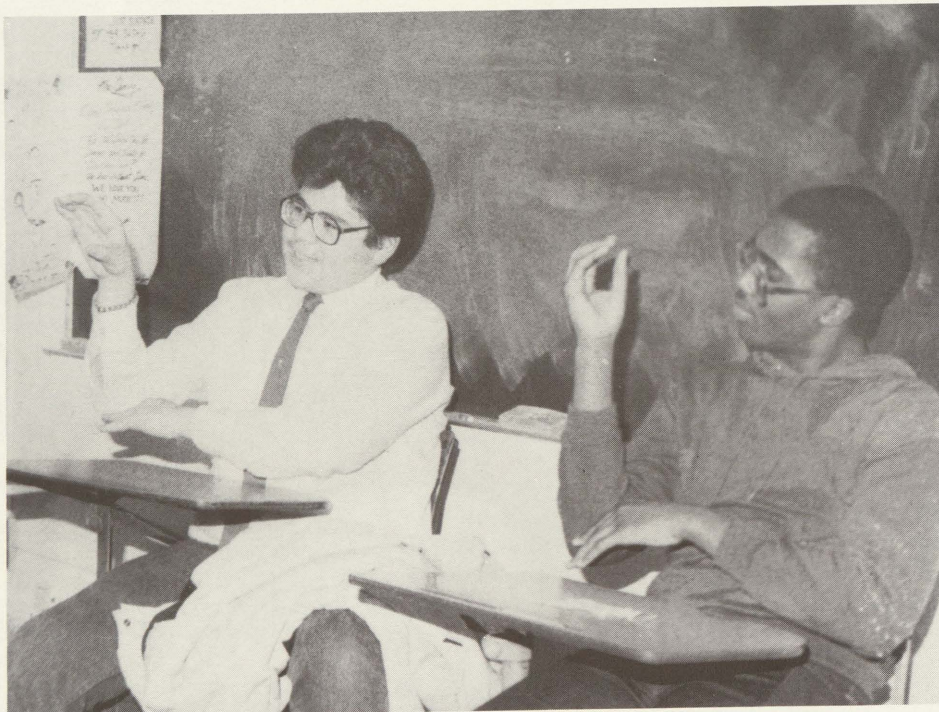

Swing Choir manifests its enjoyment during Puttin' on the Ritz was a favorite number for Jazz Choir members.

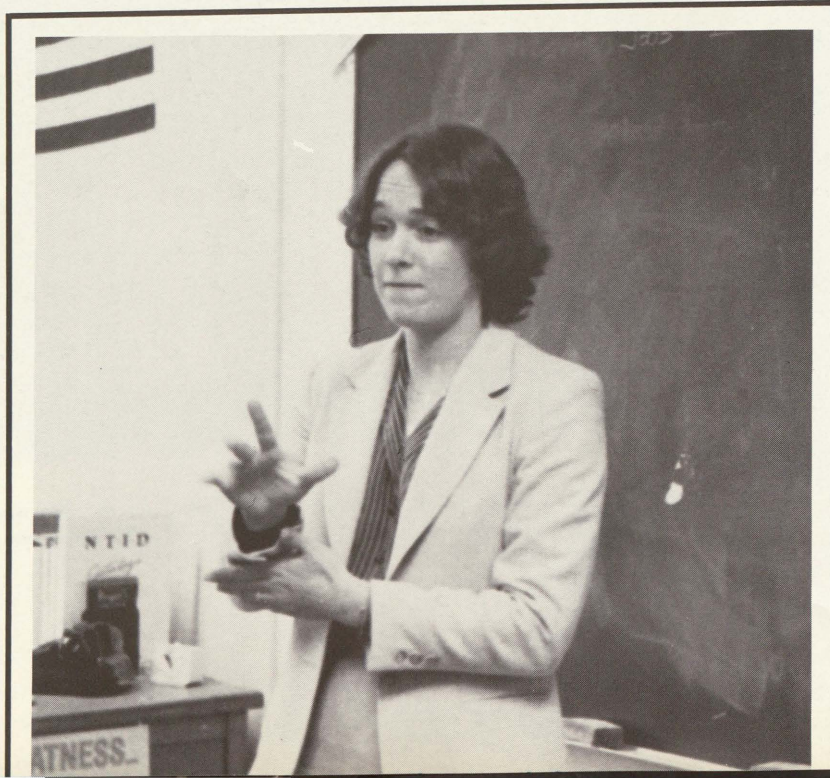

Senior, Sandy Hardman, Junior, Kerri Ramirez, and sophomore, Beverly Sanders learn new lessons each week.

Juniors, Gil Guevara and Willie Irving learn to "say" Christmas in sign language.

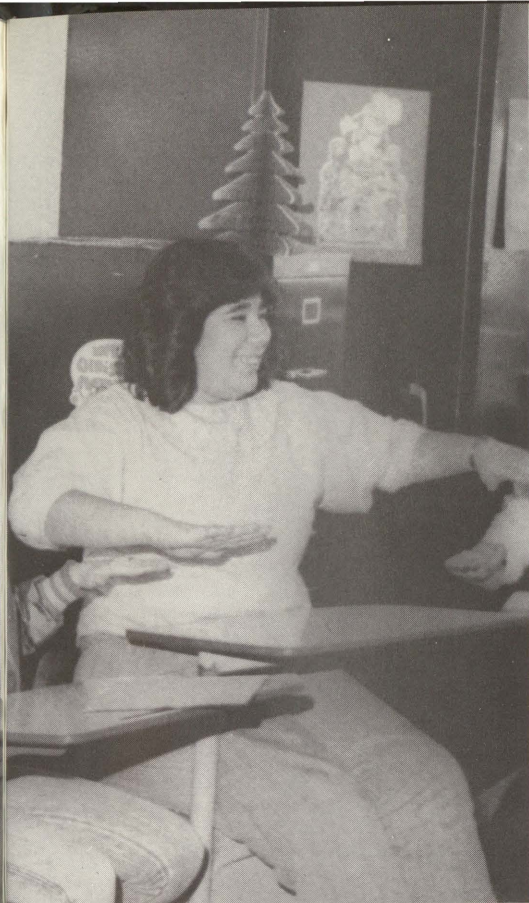

Learning Christmas carols are sophomore Lori Chitwood and Ms. Renee Clemens, as deaf student Wesley Harper also participates.

Club Sponsor, Mrs. Spadafore, teaches the basics of sign language.

Club Teaches New Language

Meeting twice a week, sign language club provides a way to communicate with the deaf. Mary Spadafore, Arthur Hill's teacher of the hearing impaired, volunteered time to students, and teachers alike, to teach them the basic skills of sign language.

This year's club, with 15 members, met on Tuesdays and Thursdays to learn words and even songs.

Sign language club was new to Arthur Hill this year. Mrs. Spadafore said that, "the general idea of the club is to become familiar with sign language and to be able to use it if a situation so called for it". Ms. Spadafore also said, "if there is enough interest, I'd like to offer a class for credit".

Students who are interested in checking into this club can go to room 204 Tuesdays and Thursdays at lunchtime.

Signing "Learning Sign Language is Interesting and Fun," are Sign Language Club members: Sandy Hardman, Tracy Arel, Kerri Ramirez, Renee Clemens and Mary Spadafore.

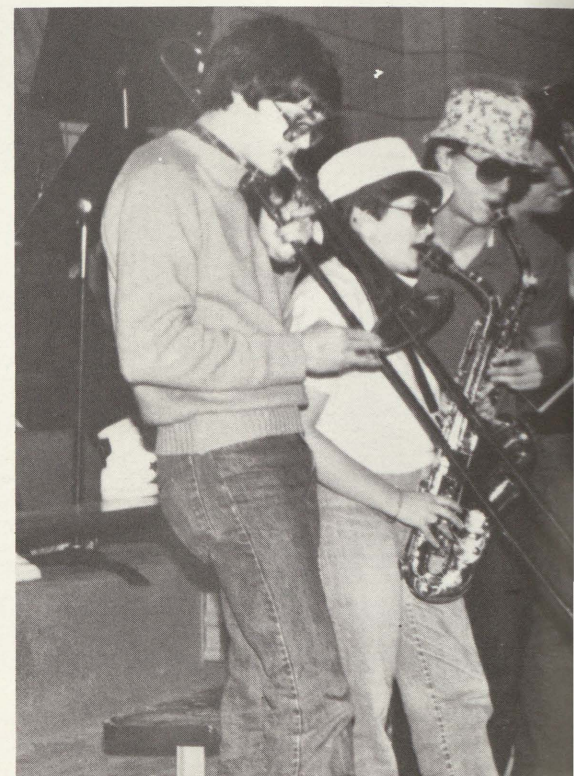

Band director, Richard Jensen, conducts the band in a musical piece.

Performing at the Christmas assembly is one of the bands many opportunities to show its stuff.

Here the Woodwind section awaits the cue from the conductor.

Playing in the pep band during a basketball game are conductor, Mr. Jensen, Ben Landon, Betsy Jenney and John Cole.

Band Director Retires After Twenty Years

After twenty years as conductor of Arthur Hill Bands, Mr. Richard Jensen is retiring. Jensen hopes to write music in his retirement.

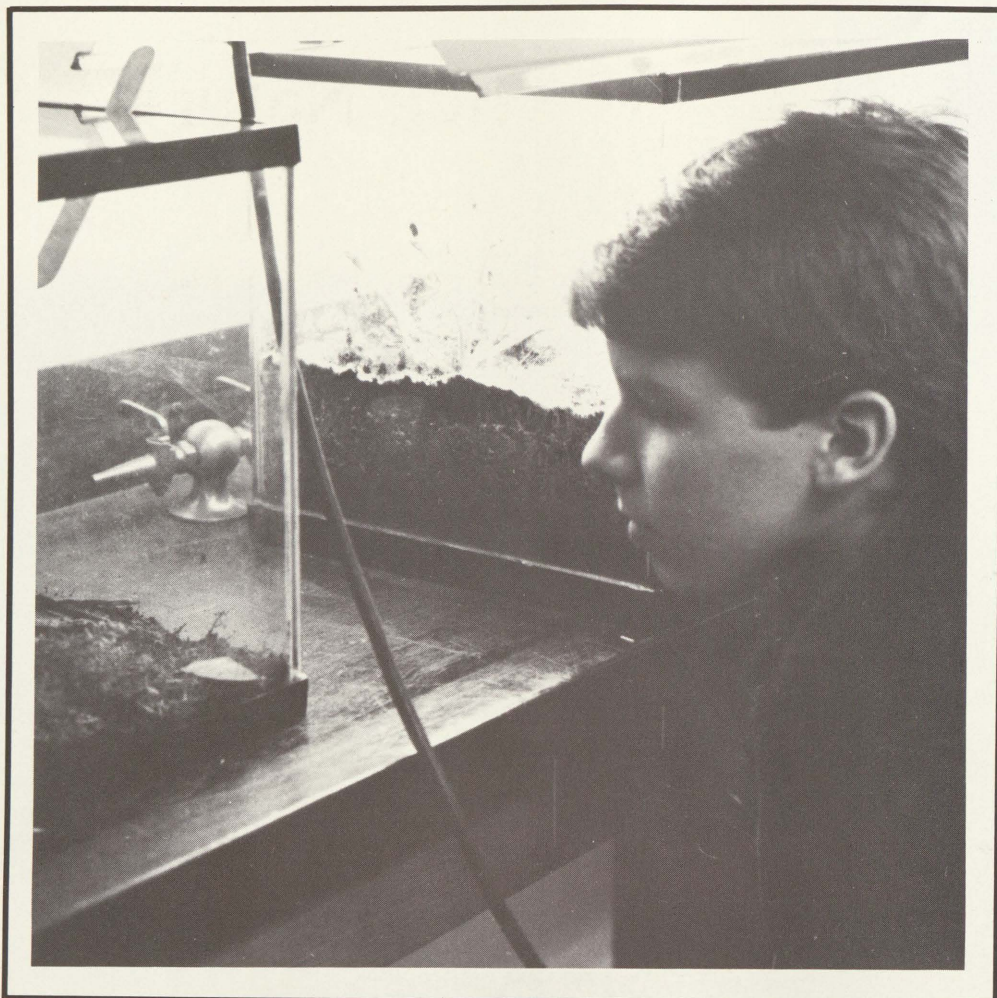

In his tenure as Band Conductor at Arthur Hill Jensen headed four types of bands: the Marching Band, which performs at football games and in parades; the Jazz and Honors Bands commonly heard accompanying the choral groups; and the Pep Band which plays in the balcony of the gym during basketball games.

Students interested in playing instruments are encouraged to try out for bands as it is difficult to get a big sound out of a small group.

At the end of the assembly, the band plays a Christmas tune as the students leave.

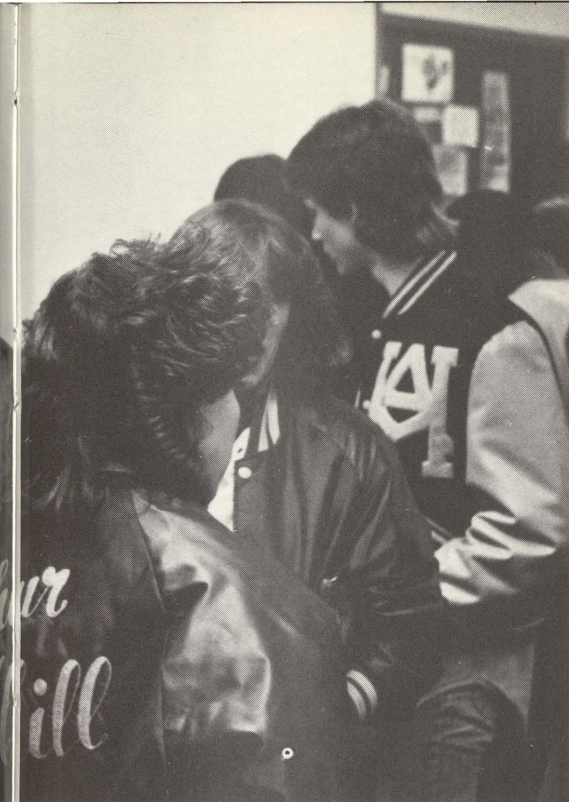

After the meeting, Sean Gale examines a desert animal in an aquarium.

Awaiting the start of the meeting, Daren Duby and friends relax.

Attention is paid to a club speaker by members.

Biology Club isn't all business, here student members prove it.

Meeting is Their Nature

At the refreshment break, Biology Club Sponsor, Mr. Case visits club members.

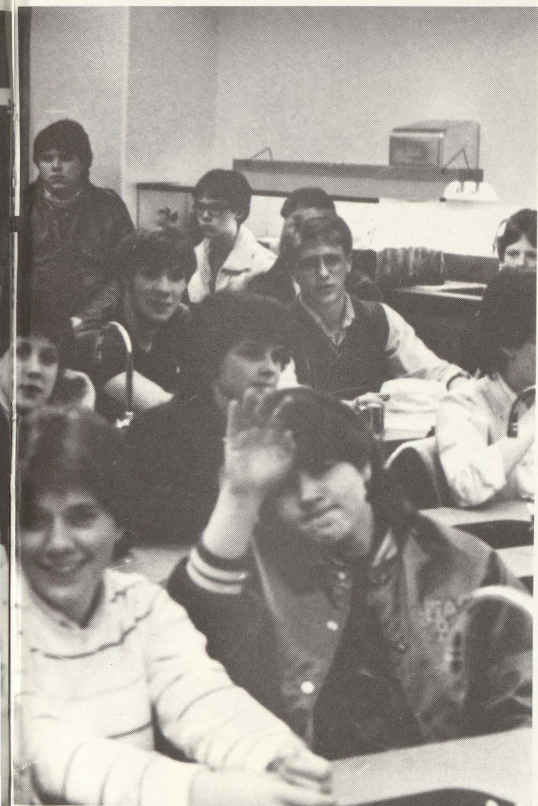

The Biology Club is the Brain Child of two dedicated faculty members: Fred Case and Sam Maisano.

The duo is responsible for all of the arrangements including publicity, securing speakers and supervising the meetings.

The goals for the club this year were to have quality programs involving field trips, speakers and events for the interested students.

Case requires only that club members be courteous and interested. "Whatever time and effort students give to the club will come back to them as a learning experience and enjoyment of a subject," Case said.

If nothing else, the club is an opportunity "to make new friends and to share interests."

Black Studies Club Focuses on Black History Month

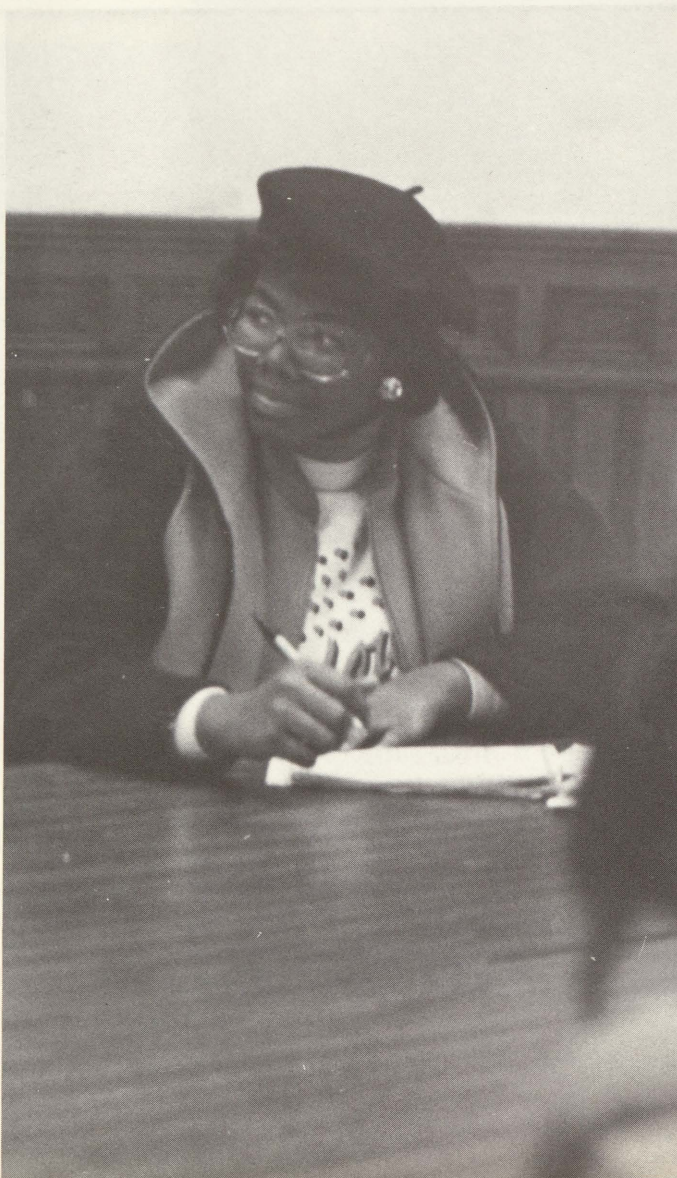

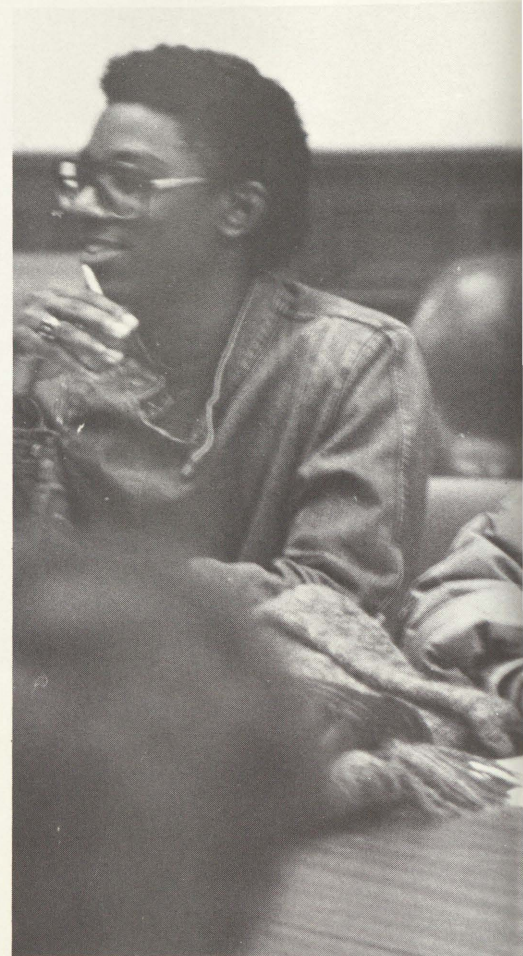

The Black Studies Club which was open to all Hillities learned more about the heritage of black people through lectures, plays, and social dances.

One of the lectures they attended was at Delta College. They also went to Detroit to see plays and musicals.

This year the club held its first annual Kwanza which is African for Christmas.

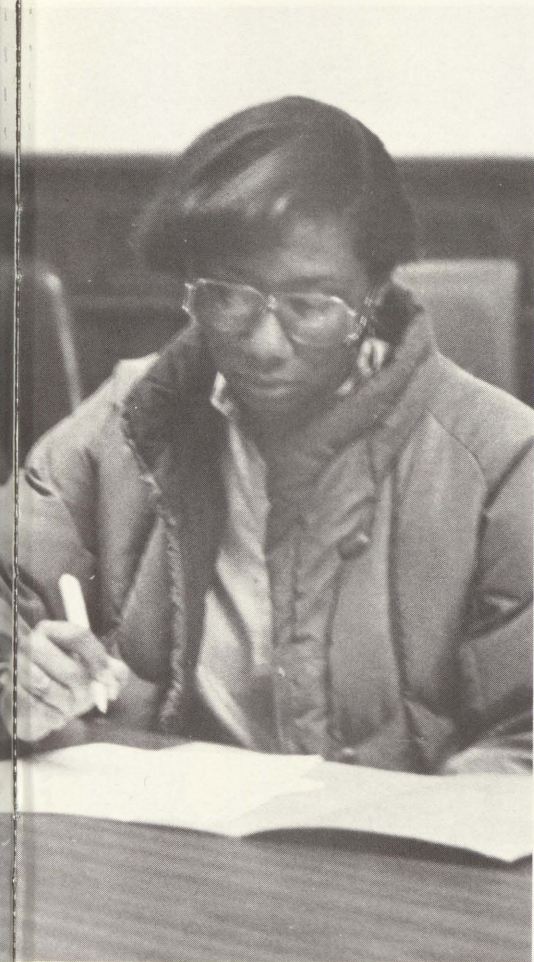

This year they had a new assistant advisor. Her name was Miss Lilly.

During the month of February a member of the Black Studies Club read a quote from a famous black person daily to enrich and enlighten Hillites.

Taking notes at the meeting is Felicia Neal.

Studying the up coming schedule for Black Studies is Mrs. Morris.

Attentively listening are Trina McWilliams and Verlandner Price.

Taking her work seriously is Sonji Carthan.

Enthusiastic Latino Club Renews Tradition at Arthur Hill.

The Latino Action Club got off with a bang when they got together for their first meeting of the 84-85 school year. The Club's Advisor, Mr. Olvera met with students early in the year to plan for upcoming work and activities.

One activity the Club hoped to sponsor in Cooperation with the Black Studies Club was an Ethnic Dinner featuring dishes and dancers from the various cultural groups represented at Arthur Hill. The same Dinner was a great success several years ago.

At the first meeting the Club elected Officers for the year: Delia Yrlas was elected President, Lisa Santoyo Vice President, Lisa Cruz Tresurer and Peter Elizadle for Secretary.

The club was open to all students at Arthur Hill, but the main thrust was to get Latino Hillites involved in Academic and Extra Curricular activities at school.

"Wiz" Kids Make Drama Club a Success

One of the exciting elective classes at Arthur Hill is the Drama/Speech class headed by Mr. Don Durrett. This class is responsible for the exciting talent shows and plays that we had a chance to observe.

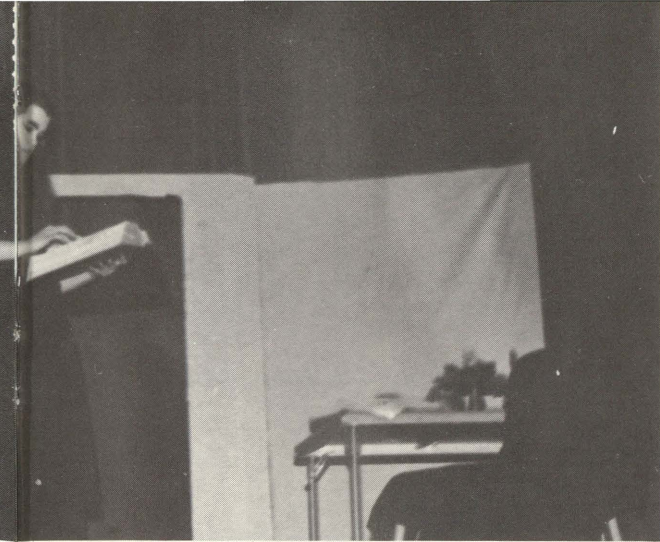

During the Drama segment of the class, the students learn about scenery, lighting, and the history of Drama. During the speech segment, the students learn to do debates, pantomimes, and various kinds of speeches.

There was an excellent response to the group's production of "Snow White". During the second semester the class did a mixed adaptation of the Broadway hit "The Wiz" and the classic "Wizard of Oz". The leading roles went to Sara Maul as Dorothy, John Rutherford as the Lion, Bill Urbanawiz as the Scarecrow, Kip Wrege as the Tin Man, Marsha Austin as the Wicked Witch, Johanna Polzin as the Good Witch, and Sandy Tunney as Auntie Em.

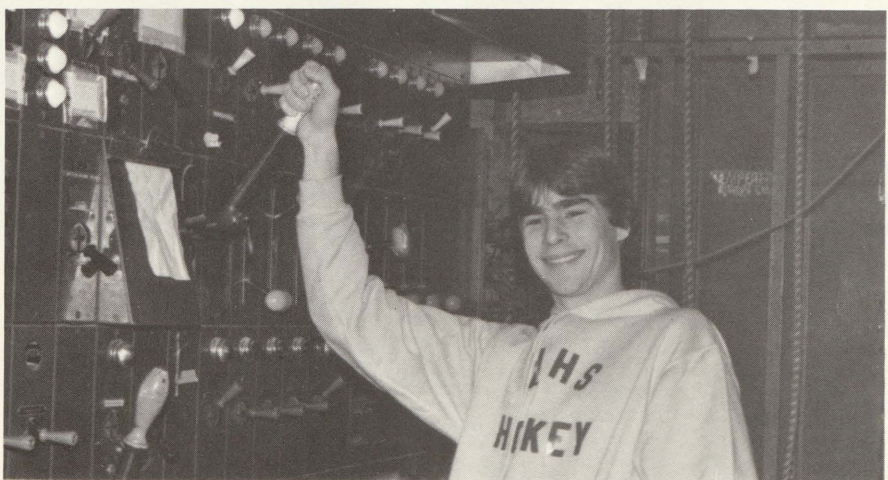

Durrett sought to involve as many students and staff members as possible in the production of the spring play.

"Beware of the Wicked Queen," the Seven Dwarves warn Snow White.

Operating the light board for the drama class is part of Eric Nowosatka's responsibility as an A.V. aide.

CAS: A Higher Educational Experience

Arthur Hill offers a variety of college preparation courses and is increasing the choices every year. Students took advantage of some expanded programs offered this year, such as computer science. Seniors strove hard to reach their academic goals in preparing for their graduation. Many students turned to COC and CAS as a head start on their careers. The time it takes to earn an education will benefit students for a lifetime.

CAS: A Higher Educational Experience

Ruben Daniels Lifelong Learning Center, Center for the Arts and Sciences, or simply CAS, no matter what you call it, it's still the same. It's a place for many students, who have a talent in vocal or performing arts, or who are ahead of their classmates in their studies, to go and receive a higher, yet free public education.

If you excell in one of the arts or a particular academic area, the CAS is the place to be. Of course you have to pass the test first. Before registering, everyone must take "The Test of Cognitive Skills". Which tests for analogies and ability to think. Students entering the Arts department, must submit an example of their work.

The Center is unique in its design and programming. "There is no other program such as that offered by the CAS that affords gifted, talented students the opportunity to grow as effectively as it is being done here," Keith H. Birdsall, Executive Director said.

Students from some 28 schools in Saginaw County have been attending the CAS since it opened in the fall of 1981. The cooperation and support from these home schools is what makes the Center a success.

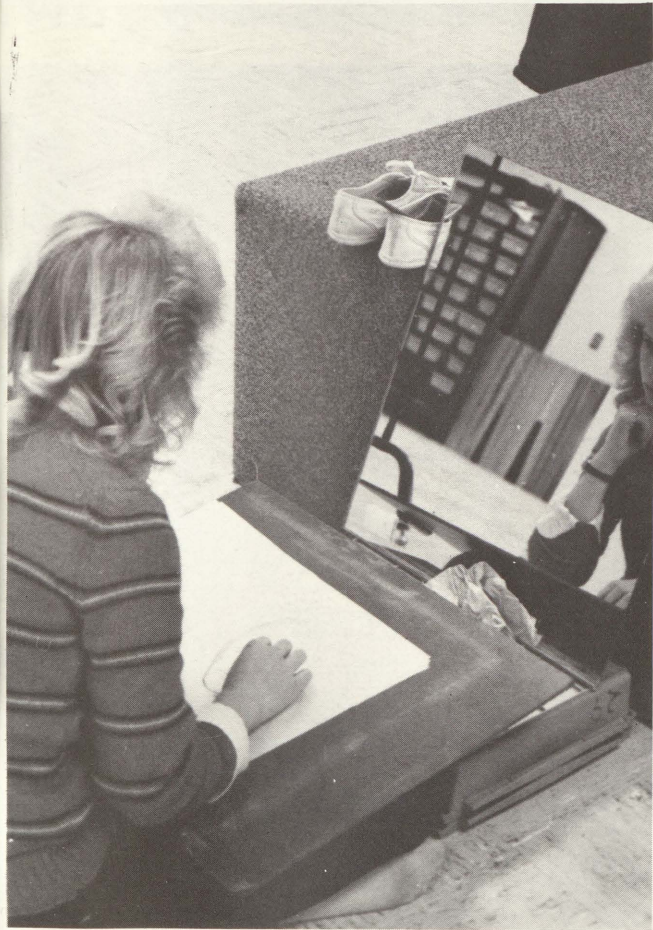

The CAS Choral Group practices for a performance using the musical score.

The Making Of Future Professionals at C.O.C.

COC is the Averill Career Opportunities Center and it's purpose is to give students the basic knowledge of a specific career. Students throughout Saginaw County may attend one class per semester at COC which usually lasts about two and a half hours a day.

Most of the programs at COC are college related but the programs include classes oriented to students with special needs. There are approximately 1700 students attending COC this year, and most of these students go out to job sites. The staff members at COC have either earned college degrees or certificates in their field of work which means they have a well qualified professional staff.

Teaching Educational to Students and Teachers

Teaching is a difficult job and it takes a special kind of person to devote his time and patience to students.

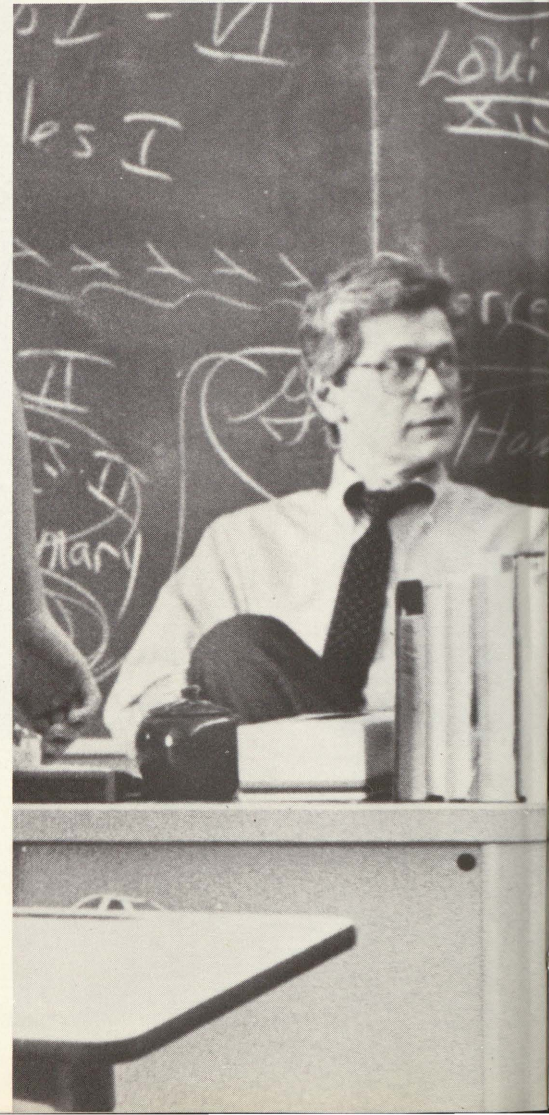

Over the years teachers have helped students to comprehend various areas of basic knowledge. Like students, some teachers also learn new things each day.

Many teachers involve themselves in extra-curricular activities, Mr. Knight for instance, in coaching hockey, and Mr. Case for his various efforts to better students by field trips, quiz bowls, and Biology club.

Overall, the teachers put a lot of time and effort into class agendas and preparations to teach students new concepts.

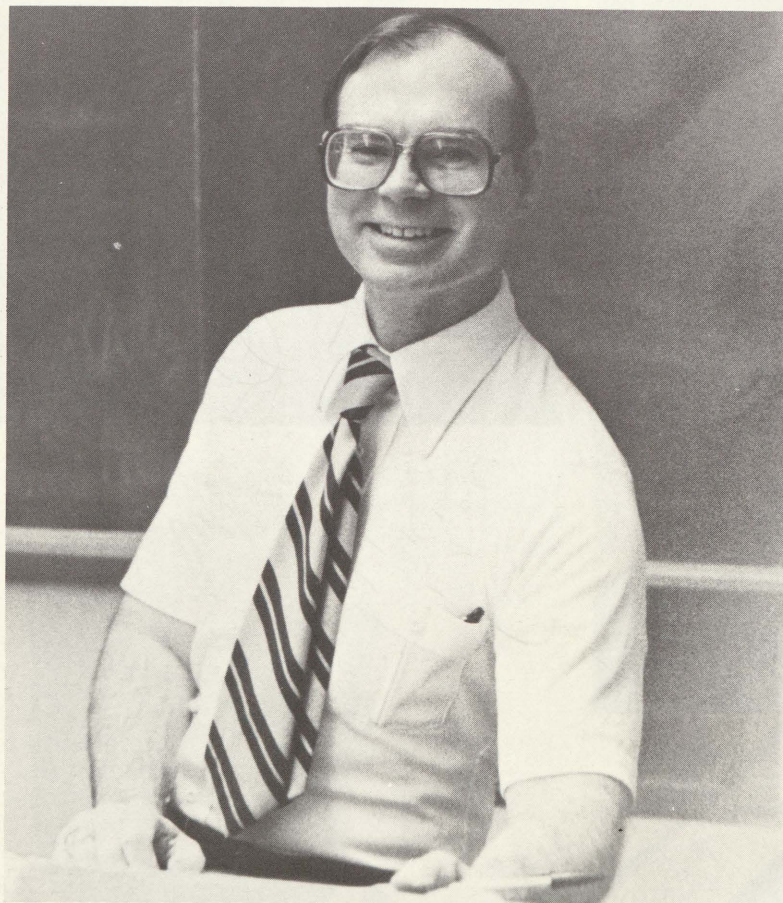

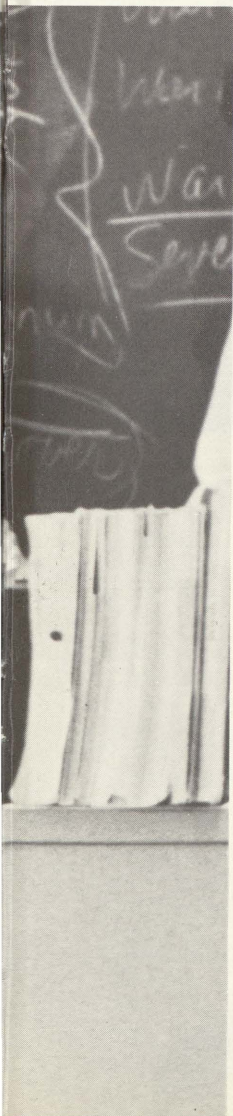

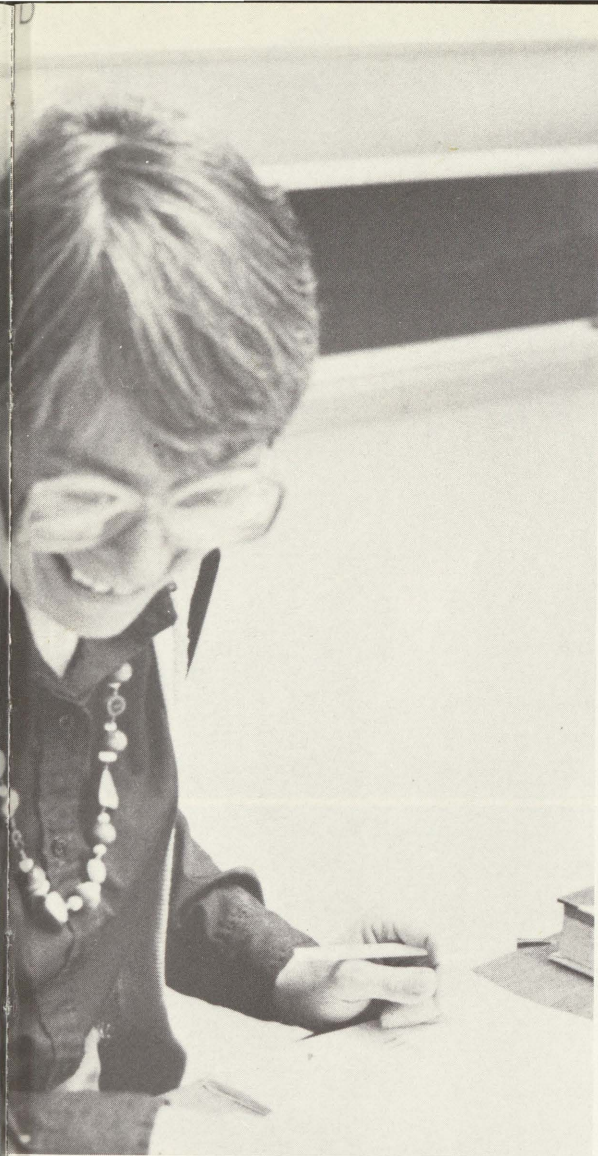

Explaining problems is a daily function for Mr. Rankin.

Looking Out For The Future

The future at Arthur Hill could hold a required computer class for graduation according to Gene Nuckolls, Assistant Superintendent of Secondary Education.

New Programs, including a diesel engine repair class at COC, are currently underway. The Board is also repairing and renovating several buildings in the city.

Traditionally the thrust of the Central Administration Team is to keep abreast of the trends in education so that Saginaw's schools can continue to be among the best.

Striving to Reach Goals

Administrators, much like students strive for goals each year. These goals enable them to better meet student and staff needs each year.

Mr. Sharpe set out to encourage activities that furthered the opportunity for voluntary integration and sharing of cultural experiences and ideas in our school. He also did his best to get to know as many of the 1700 students at AHHS as he could so he could call them by name.

Mr. Adams, in charge of discipline, had as goals to become more involved in co-curricular activities. To educate parents he had a Parent Assertive Discipline Workshop at AHHS on Feb. 25, 1985 which dealt with helping parents whose students are having a discipline problem.

Working cooperatively with COC in making students more aware of and knowledgeable about the programs offered; and with the staff, students, and parents to determine instructional and curriculum needs of the school and to develop methods to meet those needs; were just a few of Mr. Smith's goals.

Mr. Gerber, in charge of attendance had as his goal a decrease in student attendance offenders, and an increased responsibility of students for their own actions.

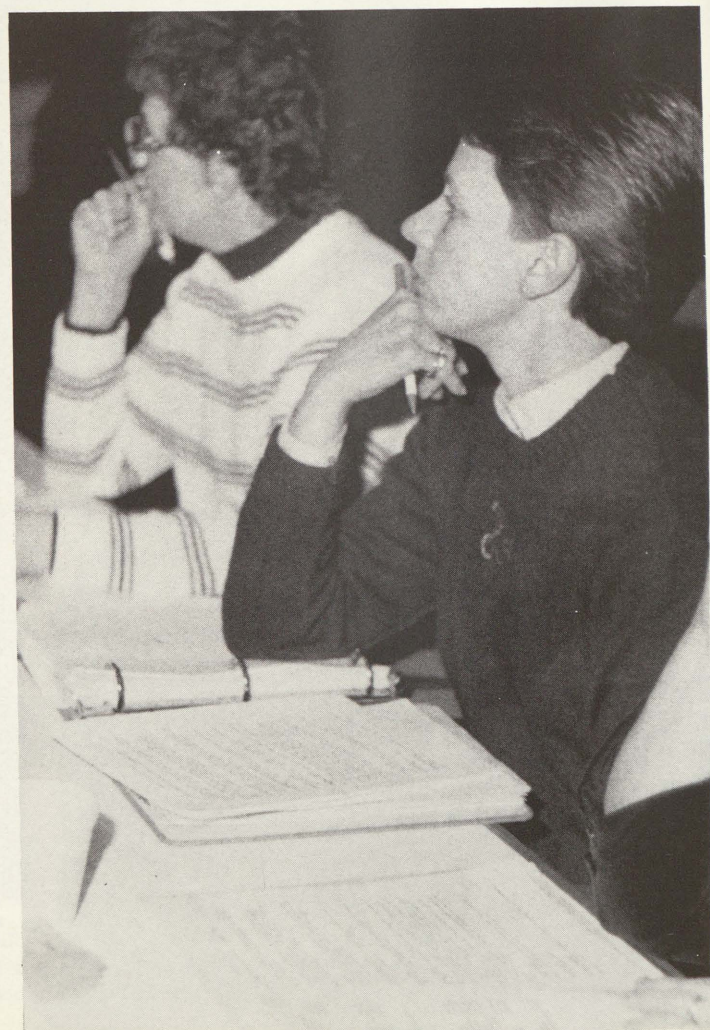

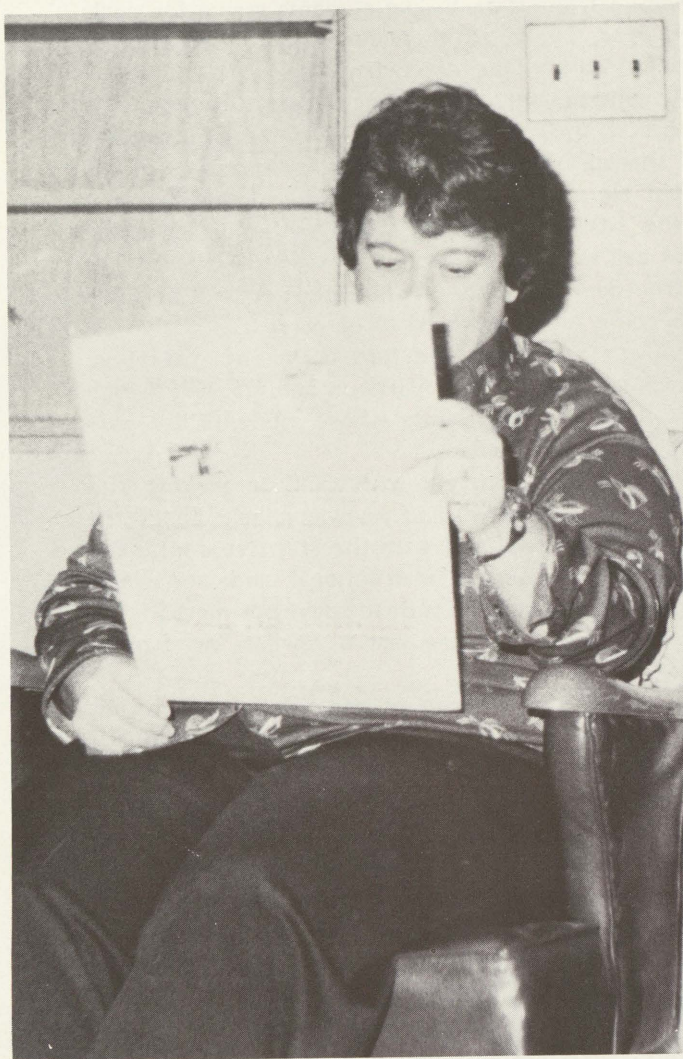

In dealing with student behavior, Resource Officer Lively sought to reduce the number of contacts with students; to provide a feeling of security and safety for all students and teachers working at AHHS; and to assist all students in understanding fully the workings of the Criminal Justice System.

"Hopefully, with the help of the teaching staff and my fellow administrators, we have accomplished at least 80% of our goals for this year. We have a long way to go and we will keep plugging away," said Mr. Sharpe.

PAC Goals: Functions, Funds and Efficiency

The Parent Advisory Council (PAC) is an organization that enables parents to participate in the making of a better school.

Made up of 39 active members and open to all parents, this year's PAC sponsored many school related events. Beginning with "Get Acquainted Night", and an open membership meeting, the Council planned for the year's events including: the Homecoming Parade, Open House, the Christmas Bazaar, and the Pancake Breakfast, which are all held annually.

Representatives from the Council also attended the Governor's Summit Convention.

The PAC is also helpful during the end of the year activities. Members chaperone the Prom and the Senior Party and help organize the annual Auction each spring.

Besides hosting all of these events, the PAC devoted much of its time to discussing the problems of the school, the school's faculty and its calendar.

A main concern of the PAC is the school's discipline policy. Members felt more attention should be given to this matter, so they worked closely with Mr. Sharpe to find a solution for the discipline problem.

Counselors Help Students Attain Goals

The counselors this year are very glad more than ever to help our student body in achieving goals for the future and toward graduation.

One of the goals of the counseling department is getting the students in more academic programs. The highlight for this year's counselors is helping the students improving their grades and making the right decisions for the remainder of their time at Arthur Hill. Students appreciate the counselors help over the years, especially the outgoing class of '85.

According to Mrs. Baxter, "the most interesting experiences are the getting Seniors ready to graduate and make plans for their future."

Commencement symbolizes the end of one life and the beginning of another. Here seniors listen attentively to the commencement speaker.

The class of 1985 has accomplished a lot. They've been preparing for their senior year since this summer when they scheduled and sat for their senior pictures.

When they arrived in September, they began applying to the colleges of their choice.

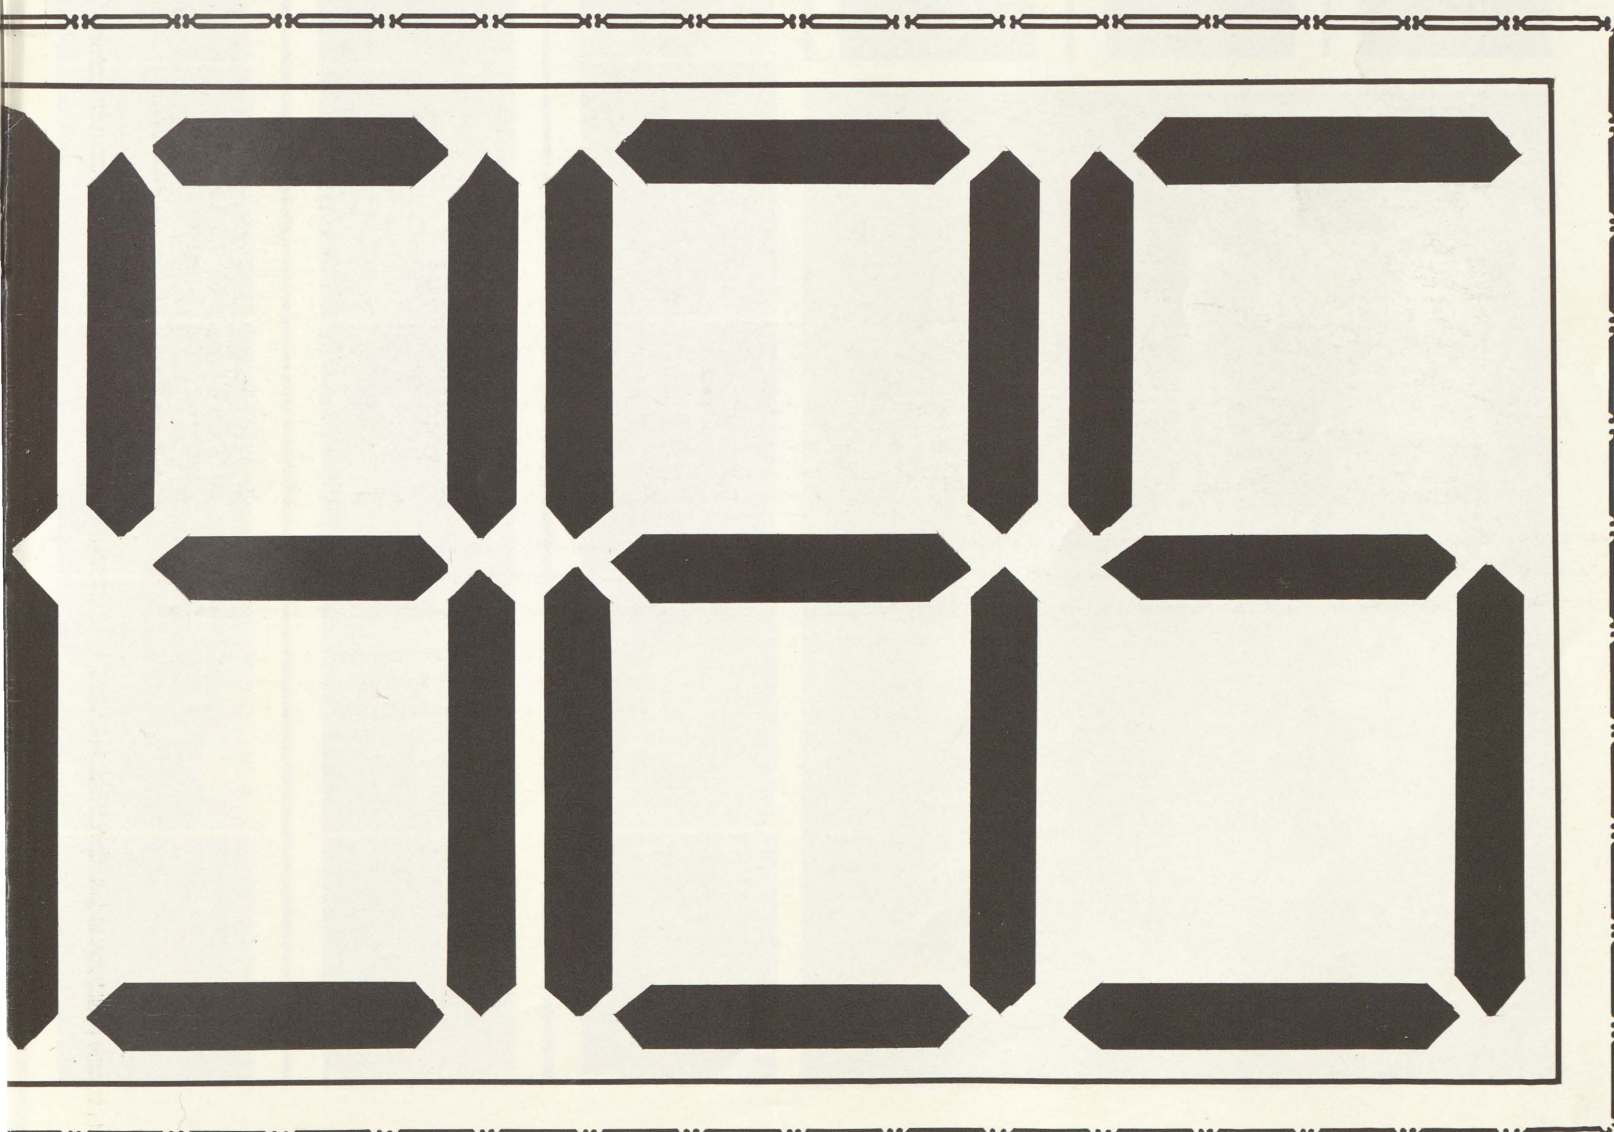

They've ordered their class of '85 t-shirts, sized and ordered their caps and gowns, and worked hard for college.

Now all that's left of their time at Arthur Hill is the glory, which involves attending Vespers the week of graduation, the Senior Prom where all the happiness and glory comes through.

Last but not least, on June 6th, the long awaited commencement and graduation ceremonies will take place.

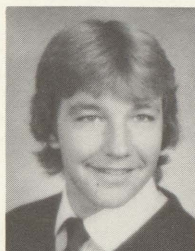

Finally, after the pomp and circumstance is behind them, they will attend their last hurrah at Arthur Hill, the Senior Party.

One More Time

Trying to get Cherlyn Erway's attention is junior Patty Dutton.

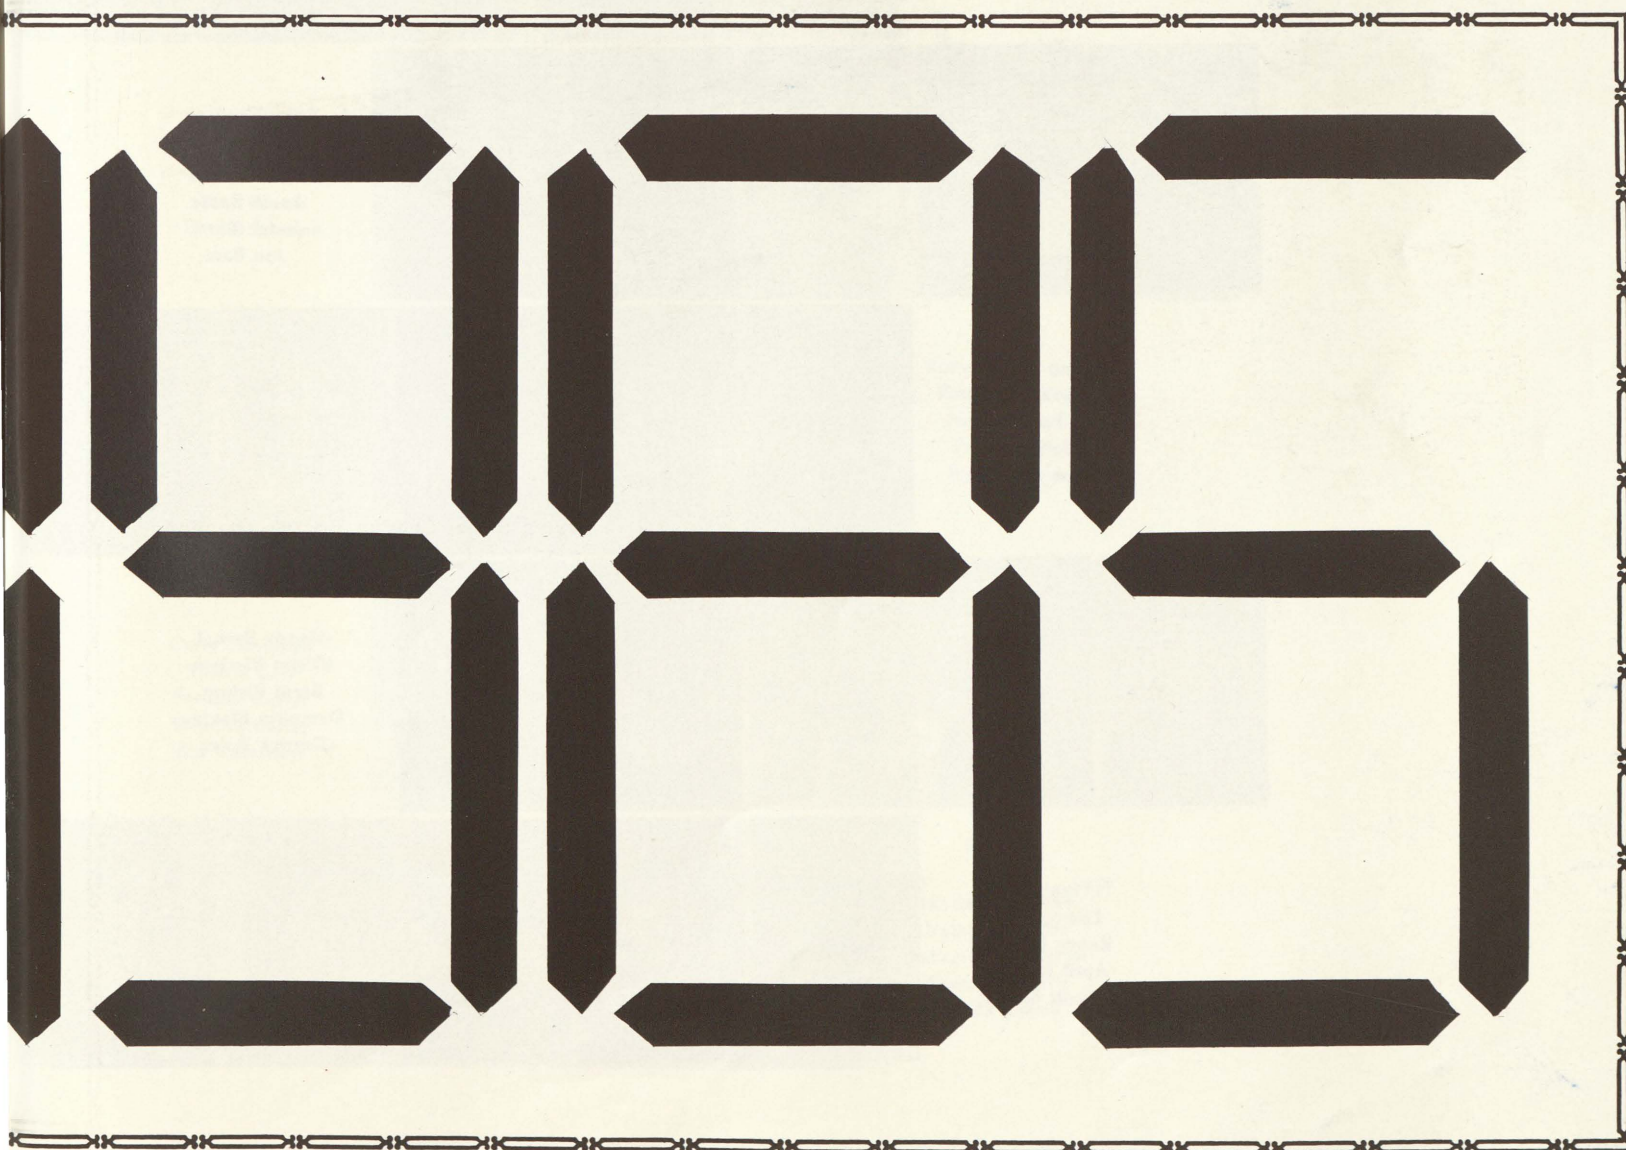

To Renee:
 Once again this was the funnest
 class I had this year!
 Have fun this summer,
 don't get into too much trouble! See ya next year. Love Ya, Vic
 Vic 9/86

Graduating from being tenth graders are this year's juniors. This year's juniors proved that they are the best junior class Arthur Hill has ever had. The junior girls beat the senior girls in powderpuff and the juniors keep on beating the seniors in everthing at the Hill. On the other hand the sophomores experienced their first year here at Arthur Hill.

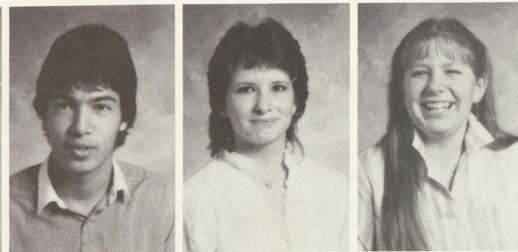

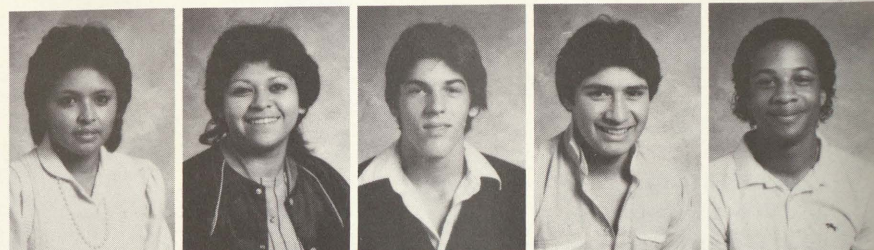

They all seemed to adjust to the change of schools. The sophomores learned how to adjust with the help of upperclassmen.

Now the year is over and each day of school has been an education to the underclassmen.

Student Dunkers Stiff Staff 22-20

The donkey basketball game will go down in history as the first time the students out did the faculty. After exchanging the lead several times throughout the four quarters the game ended in a spectacular behind the back midcourt buzzer shot by Scott Dinse putting the students ahead 22-20.

The spectator and faculty support for this event were tremendous and greatly appreciated.

Thanks, It Didn't Go Unnoticed

The 1985 Legenda Staff would like to extend its special thanks to Delmar Studios for its cooperation in taking Homecoming, King Arthur, Team, Sophomore and Junior pictures, to the faculty and club sponsors for their patience through interviews and interruptions; to Judy Meyers for helping to sell pub stubs and donkey basketball tickets; and to the coaching staff including Milo Collins and Tim Ryan, for their cooperation in supplying season highlights and scoreboards. Without the continuing support of the Arthur Heights community this book would not have been possible.

Ms.

or my special teacher
thanks for all your help in everything
have a great summer!

Pat

Renee,
It's been a lot of fun in yearbook this year. I'm glad I took that class. You're a great teacher. Have a good summer!

Lemano

Renee,
I'm a great friend. It's been a real pleasure to have you since again.
I can't wait until we can go out partying
or just year!
And I'll see you next year! Don't forget to have too much fun w/ Mr. Stock!

Love always
Lissa Furb

Renee,
I bet it seems like a long time since Ed
& I were in your class - that was a fun time.
I had a good time in there &
I think you are an excellent teacher. Don't forget me ok?

Love,
Julie
Smith

Miss Clements,

To someone who was not only a semi-talented teacher
but a good friend
as well. It's not easy to have a really fun style class like your newspaper class
without boring anyone.
but you did the finest job anyone
could ever expect.
My three years
in both yearbook
and newspaper may be the most rewarding
times of my life.
I'll be sure to
pay you a visit
here next fall.
Maybe you'll find a real job
someday, but don't go crazy searching for one.

To Miss Renee Clements:
The sweetest and
best lady teacher
I've had the pleasure of being taught
by for a long time.
I hope we'll see
you again next year!
